

WAR TO FOLLOW IF TROOPS MOVE SOUTH--CARRANZA

MEXICAN LEADER HURLS DEFY AT UNCLE SAM'S FORCE

Washington, D. C., June 17.—Warning from Mexican commanders that any movement of American troops except in retirement toward the border would precipitate hostilities will not change the purpose of the United States government to keep its present force in Northern Mexico or prevent General Pershing from taking any steps necessary to insure the safety of his own columns, and deal with bandits there. No advance further south is contemplated, and it is not believed here the Carranza forces are planning an immediate attack upon the present American forces. Secretary Lansing said today the policy of the United States was unchanged.

Washington, June 17.—General Funston advised the war department today that he was informed by General Bell at El Paso that General Pershing had been warned by General Trevino, the Carranza commander at Chihuahua, that any movement of the American expedition to the south, west or east would be a signal for an attack by the Mexican forces.

Laredo, Texas, June 17.—Philip C. Hanna, U. S. consul general at Monterey, and one of the two remaining American consuls in Mexico accompanied by half a dozen other Americans, arrived here today. He was reticent as to the object of his visit.

Asked regarding conditions in Mexico and the probable length of his stay, Consul Hanna replied:

"Everything is quiet down the line. I may remain two or three days."

It has been known for some time that Consul Hanna was instructed by the state department that he could leave his post at any time at his own discretion.

Brownsville, Texas, June 17.—United States troops came upon a band of between 25 and 30 Mexican bandits about ten miles east of San Benito, Texas, late last night and after exchanging a few shots the Mexicans scattered. It is reported three Mexicans were killed. So far as known there was no American casualties.

The troops engaged came from San Benito. Two companies of the Twenty-sixth Infantry were immediately dispatched in automobiles from Hallsburg, Texas, to Olmito, ten miles north of Brownsville, in an effort to cut off the bandits, who at midnight were headed for the Rio Grande.

San Antonio, Texas, June 17.—The arrival at Laredo today of Philip Hanna, consul general at Monterey, developed the fact that the state department ordered both him and J. H. Stillman, consul at Saltillo, to the American side of the river.

Laredo, Texas, June 17.—Texas rangers under command of Captain J. J. Sanders, and several armed citizens, were hurried to Litas, 25 miles up the Rio Grande from Laredo on a report that Mexican bandits were seen approaching the settlement. Rangers in that vicinity advised the few Americans to congregate at the J. B. Morrow ranch house, from which an appeal for aid was telephoned.

TROOPS ARE KEPT CLOSE TO POST

El Paso, Texas, June 17.—Officers and soldiers of the American garrison were kept closely to their quarters today. Street car service to Juarez is at a standstill and efforts were made by United States customs officials to persuade Americans not to cross the river.

Tension was noticeable on the Mexican side where numbers of civilians were arming themselves. Reports from authentic sources indicated that recruiting for the army was being pushed in all the larger cities in Northern Mexico.

HUGHES RETURNS TO THE CAPITAL

Washington, D. C., June 17.—Charles E. Hughes, Republican presidential candidate, who returned to his home here last night from New York, spent most of today making preparations for moving his family to a summer home before he starts on his first campaign trip. He received some political callers and many personal friends who dropped in to offer their congratulations.

Mr. Hughes was up early, as his custom, and went for an automobile ride, driving his car himself. His first callers were the newspaper men to whom he declared he had nothing to say on political efficiency.

U. S. TROOPERS IN MEXICO PREPARE TO DEFEND THEMSELVES

AMERICAN TROOPS IN MEXICO

The soldiers of the punitive expedition in Mexico have made elaborate preparations for their own defense because of the threatened attacks by hostile Carranzista troops. ## 'The President Has Kept The Country Out of War', Is The Democrat's Battlecry

W. J. BRYAN

(By W. J. Bryan)
(Copyrighted 1916 by Central Press Association)

St. Louis, Mo., June 17.—The debate on the woman suffrage amendment afforded a splendid illustration of the weakness of the opposition. The minority report presented by Governor Ferguson, of Texas, was signed by four members. Only seventeen members of the committee had voted against the plank in the committee against twenty-six in the affirmative, but thirteen of the seventeen were content to accept the will of the majority and did not join the minority report. Governor Ferguson took upon himself the task of presenting and defending the minority report on the floor of the convention. If he has any enemies they missed a great deal of pleasure, if they were not present, for they could not have wished him to appear at a poorer advantage.

The friends of equal suffrage ought to have his remarks printed and circulated as an evidence of inability of opponents of equal suffrage to justify their position. When Senator Stone, Senator Pittman and Senator Walsh, who divided between them the time given to the majority report on this subject finished their speeches the delegates proceeded to defeat their minority substitutes by a vote of more than 800 to less than 200. A large majority of Southern delegates supported the suffrage plank and the great states of New York, Pennsylvania and Illinois, cast the weight of their influence in favor of the platform position.

The Democratic convention can be summed in a few words. Measured by the speeches delivered, it ranks among the greatest of the Democratic conventions. Reference has already been made to the keynote addresses delivered by Temporary Chairman Glynn and Permanent Chairman James.

The speech of Judge Westcott, of New Jersey, presenting the name of President Wilson, was a masterpiece. It possessed both strength and beauty and was delivered in such a way as to evince the speaker's heartfelt interest in the honorable task which had been delegated to him.

During the closing session, while the convention was waiting for the report of platform committee, Senator Reed, of Missouri,

Robinson's Majority Shows An Increase On Recount Of Votes

Wheeling, W. Va., June 17.—The majority for Judge Ira B. Robinson, candidate for the Republican nomination for governor at the recent primary election was increased to 297 over Attorney General A. A. Lilley by the completion of the recount in five additional counties, according to advices received here today. The biggest gain was in Berkeley county, where a transposition of votes for Robinson and Lilley resulted in an increase of 81 for the former. Canvassed returns have now been received from 43 of the 55 counties in the state.

The Eden was sunk in the English channel last night after a collision. This announcement was made this afternoon by the official press bureau.

Hough, today received word from the war department that by the terms of the new federal army law, adopted June 3, officers and enlisted men of the Ohio National Guard must take new oaths and enlistment papers in which they must swear allegiance to both the federal and state government. ## IF WAR WITH MEXICO APPEARS A DUTY IT WILL NOT BE SHIRKED

Washington, D. C., June 17.—Carranza commander opposite San Although the United States' reply to General Carranza's last note is virtually completed, its dispatch is being detained while administration officials seek detailed information on new developments.

Carranza's threat is reported from Chihuahua yesterday as having been transmitted to General Pershing through General Trevino, to start active warfare if American troops in Mexico are moved in any direction except northward toward the border.

Another bandit raid on Texas territory north of Brownsville was reported last night, in addition to the attack on American troops by Mexicans at San Ignacio, Wednesday. Reports of warnings by the shirked.

ALLIES DEMANDS ON GREECE INCREASED

Athens, June 7.—The demands of the entente allies nations on Greece, it was learned here today, are being considerably strengthened and extended as a result of the Anti-entente demonstrations which broke out in Athens last Monday.

The demands were ready for presentation to the Greek government when the disorders occurred but the note probably will not be delivered until next week. Meanwhile the entente blockade against Greek ports is continuing in full force.

London, June 17.—There are no signs of halt in the powerful Russian offensive in Volhynia, Galicia and Bukovina. The latest Austrian official statement tells of a Russian check here and there, notably the defeat of a cavalry force south of the Dniester in Galicia and the stopping of Russian efforts to cross the Stokhod and the Styr in Volhynia.

The Russians, however, are remaining on the aggressive, attacking all along the Volhynian front and pressing hard against the Austrian lines further south. The capture of approximately 170,000 men by the Russians since the inception of the offensive is claimed by Petrograd, which declares that steady advances are being scored against the Austrian armies.

French positions in the Dead Man Hill sector northeast of Verdun are again the object of German attacks, the big guns of the Crown Prince violently shelling the French trenches. The only infantry movements that developed, however, were a hand grenade attack slightly west of the hill, which the French repulsed, and a similar attack on the Avocourt road to the southwest, which also failed.

There is still pronounced activity on the Trentino front, where the Austrians and Italians are at grips, but no advances of consequence, on either side are claimed, in the latest reports.

ROOSEVELT'S CONDITION IS SATISFACTORY

The Colonel, his physicians announced last night, has suffered a slight attack of pleurisy. They consider his condition satisfactory.

Billy Butch Times Weather

I started out to pull off a wet spell yesterday P. M., but hauled up short when I happened to think what it would do to Shoe-makers' Day. Far be it from me to spoil a good time like that, so you'll know that if it rains this P. M. it's because some other weather man "batted in." I won't be guilty. Here's for tomorrow: Ohio—Probably fair tonight and Sunday, not much change in temperature. Kentucky and West Virginia—Fair tonight and Sunday.

System Absorbing Poison, Tongue Coated, Liver Clogged?

A Wineglassful of Tollo Water Will Flush Your Liver and Start You Feeling Good in Half an Hour

Those who have known the pleasure of an active, energetic life and who now drag around feeling tired, depressed and unfit—look at your tongue, see if it is not covered with a furry coat. Look at your skin, see if it is not sallow, possibly covered with pimples. Your food distresses you, bloats your stomach and sometimes feels heavy as lead. All comes from your liver. Two much rich food has choked the bile tubes, you become constipated and the bile which should be expelled regularly is being forced back into the stomach and absorbed into the system.

Concentrated Tollo Water from Dawson Springs will give quick relief. Get a 15-cent bottle from the drug store; pour out about a third of a tumbler full in a glass of plain water and drink it before breakfast. In a few minutes it will flush, really wash out the bile and waste from your system and start you feeling fine. Your complexion will start to clear up at once and by the time you have used a 15-cent bottle it will return to its natural healthy color.

Keep a bottle in the house and take a wineglassful before breakfast every few days; it will keep your bowels regular as a clock and your liver acting freely. You can eat all you want without feeling stuffy or bloated. You will know again the pleasure of an active energetic life.

Mayor Kaps dismissed the charge against Denning, who gave his age as eighteen years, upon his payment of the court costs. Denning said he could remember of only having one check cashed and said he had a pressing grocery bill to meet. He said it was the first time he was ever in trouble. The mayor warned Denning of the seriousness of his offense telling him that he was fortunate in being employed with such people as composed the Interstate company or he would likely be finding himself on the way to the Mansfield Reformatory for a few years and advised to allow this experience to serve as a warning to him and to make amends for his misconduct.

The "Gold-Standard"— in Tires

GOODRICH Tire Values are not at all "Accidental." They spring from Conditions which are logical as the Laws of the Universe.

The best-intentioned Tire Manufacturer cannot AVOID being heavily handicapped when competing against them.

Because, Goodrich "Conditions" summarize into this:

1st—The longest Experience in Mfg. the Product.

2nd—The greatest Leverage on purchasing of Raw Materials at lowest prices, through ability to take largest quantities.

3rd—The lowest Cost of Manufacturing, through largest VOLUME of Output.

4th—The clearly-demonstrated INTENTION to give Consumers and Dealers the full benefit of the large ECONOMIES resulting from possession of the three Cardinal Advantages above defined.

THE Product of such a Rubber Concern,—when marketed under such conditions,—giving the benefit of such huge Economies to Consumers may well, and logically, be considered—the "GOLD-STANDARD" in Tire Values.

Therefore:—
—When you pay MORE than the Goodrich Fair-List prices, here printed, for ANY Fabric Tire, you are merely "contributing" the difference.

Because,—You CANNOT get "better" Fabric Tires,—at ANY price!

Test them thoroughly,—and see!

More Appropriate.
Sir George Alexander's original name was Ramson before he went on the stage, and apropos of this fact a good story is told. A well known theatrical manager was once discussing Sir George with a friend.
"By the way, Alexander isn't his right name, is it?" inquired the friend.
"No," said the manager. "It used to be Samson. It was a pity to change the name of Samson to Alexander."
"Oh, but Alexander conquered the world, you know!" laughed the other.
"Yes," answered the manager. "But Samson is a more appropriate theatrical name. Have you forgotten that Samson was the first man who brought down the house?"—London Mail.

HORSE RUNS AWAY, WOMEN AND CHILDREN HURT

Baby Suffers A Bad Cut On The Head; Others Also Are In Bad Shape

Mrs. A. V. Williams, 1035 Fifteenth street, city; Mrs. Crosby Williams and three children, Frank 7, Esquel May 4 and Ruby 2, Dry Run, were painfully injured in a runaway this afternoon at three o'clock. The horse which they were driving became frightened near the corner of Sixth and Chillicothe and started galloping down Sixth street with the buggy swaying from side to side. As the horse passed the court house, Gilbert Dodds, deputy county treasurer, was quick to realize the danger and started to follow the runaway.

When the horse reached the corner of Sixth and Market streets it swerved around on Market street and the buggy crashed into a telephone pole, completely demolishing the vehicle and throwing the occupants to the street.

When Mr. Dodds arrived he found the three little children buried beneath the wreckage of the buggy, and tearing the debris from their forms, he carried them to the sidewalk.

First Aid To The Injured

C. B. Mitchell, steel worker, of Sixth street, who was walking south on Market street when the crash occurred, assisted Mr. Dodds in rendering first aid.

C. A. Stiles, brakeman on the Norfolk and Western railway, 1717 Offshore street, came along in his automobile and took the injured to the offices of Dr. L. D. Allard, Eighth and Gay streets, where their wounds were treated.

Is Worst Injured

Ruby, the two year old girl, was the most painful injured of the party. She received a deep laceration on the left temple which required several stitches to close. She was also bruised about the body, legs and arms. Her clothing was almost torn from her body.

Esquel May, aged 4, suffered from multiple bruises and cuts about the arms and legs and all but her underclothing was torn off.

Frank, aged 7, escaped with a few bruises about the head and shoulders.

Mrs. A. V. Williams, mother of Milford Williams, husband, of Mrs. Crosby Williams, was painfully injured about the body, head and shoulders.

Mrs. Crosby Williams received several lacerations about the head and arms.

According to the story told by Mrs. Crosby Williams, herself, her mother-in-law and children were down street shopping and started to drive down Sixth street. Just after they passed Marting's dry goods store, the horse became frightened and Mrs. Crosby succeeded in stopping it but the bridge which was loosely fastened about the horse's head, fell aside. Mrs. Williams started to get out of the buggy to replace the bridge when the horse with a sudden jump started galloping down Sixth street while the occupants clutched the sides of the swaying vehicle.

The party were powerless to do anything, and when the horse swerved south on Market street, Mrs. Williams said she closed her eyes, for she saw the buggy headed for the telephone pole. There was a crash, and a sound of falling splinters and that was all she remembered until picked up.

According to Gilbert Dodds, who was close behind the buggy when it struck the telephone pole, the front end of the vehicle raised into the air, and then the vehicle turned over on its side, throwing pieces of the wreck over the occupants who were hurled to the paved street.

TRADE REVIEW

IN LOCAL FIELDS
Cincinnati, June 17.—Trade conditions as found in the Cincinnati fields and vicinity by the reporters under the direction of Bradstreet are contained in the following review issued by Bradstreet:

Lexington, Ky.
Jobbers of groceries, provisions and dry goods report business in excess of last year. Hardware is in good demand and jobbers of woodware are also enjoying a good business. Collections in all lines are reported good. Crops are in good condition.

Portsmouth, Ohio
Jobbers of groceries, shoes, plumbers and building supplies report business in excess of last year at this season. Collections somewhat slow.

Manufacturers of shoes, shoe leathers, fire brick, engines and stoves report a very good business to date and orders booked to keep their plants in operation for months to come.

Freight traffic on the railroads is reported as near the capacity of the double trackage here. Considerable coal is passing through for the lakes and inland cases in excess of 1600 loaded cars west bound have gone through this point per day.

Retail trade continues brisk though we still find some sections among the grocery trade that report slow collections. Furniture dealers report collections below normal.

Flood wall extension has been awarded and started.

Richmond, Ind.
Business in ready to wear textile garments, very brisk at present, collections are good and the demand is far ahead of this time last year.

Underwear manufacturers report the demand for immediate shipments is exceeding their output which is above normal.

Collections are good and the demand is for high grade merchandise.

Skilled labor is very hard to get at present.

Wholesale lumber dealers report brisk trade and some difficulty in obtaining certain grades of lumber. Building operations of a high character together with a general shortage of seasoned lumber is held responsible.

Iron and steel market reported as steady with continued shortage of some items.

Agricultural implement business quiet which is believed normal owing to the mid-season.

Automobile business is rushing. Orders coming in which necessitate no shipments promised for 90 days.

Real estate business steady this week.

Farmers in this section greatly delayed owing to continued general rains. Fruit prospects fair only. Grain looks very good at present.

Skilled labor is still scarce in most lines and conditions are good. No strikes or unrest whatever.

Cincinnati
Retail trade has been more active with the advent of seasonable weather. Mail orders from June 1 to date show increase over same period last year. Collections are sluggish. Manufacturers' agents in household lines report department stores and hardware dealers well stocked and goods have not been moving as freely.

Automobile accessory manufacturers are busy.

Cigar and factory jobbers say trade is satisfactory but collections are somewhat slow. During the past week there has been no material change in the coal market, but if any there was an indication for a little better demand on all grades, with the possible exception of nut and slack, which is holding its own. The outlook for the future looks good.

Tanners report large business but experiencing difficulty in obtaining material.

Machine tool lines report active business, not much trouble experienced due to labor troubles, although some machinists are still out.

Machinery jobbers report business increasing, collections fair. Dealers in produce report conditions better than previous year.

Jobbers in dry goods, notions, gents' furnishings, report business good. Manufacturers of shoes and clothing say conditions are normal with settlements satisfactory.

Laborers in some of the packing houses on building contracts and in several large baking concerns are striking for an increase in wages.

A REVIEW OF THE WEEK'S MARKETS

New York, June 17.—New aspects of the foreign financial situation were presented during the week overshadowing the results of the political conventions at Chicago and St. Louis. Consumption of long deferred of $50,000,000 Russian loans was followed by indications of new undertakings here for Great Britain and France as well as South America.

There was heavy selling of the Anglo-French war issue, rumor ascribing the liquidation to the banking interests which are likely to be actively identified with new projects.

The Mexican situation caused further uneasiness, Washington's firm attitude towards the defunct government of that country being followed by fresh disturbances along the border. The unsettledness of yesterday's late market was accomplished by reports that the militia of some of the northern states would soon receive emergency orders. Traders had the market of the week entirely to themselves, except in some of the railway issues, where further quiet accumulation was observed. There was also marked improvement in low priced issues of the roads traversing the south and southwest. Restoration of the full 7 per cent rate on Louisville and Nashville was regarded as the forerunner of similar action elsewhere.

Specialties such as munitions, equipments and minor industrials were in lighter demand, but sugars maintained their recent record for activity with a new high record for American Beet Coppers and allied issues had a brief activity and several new maximums, but the movement was only indifferently maintained.

NEW YORK STOCKS
New York, June 17.—Selling of the usual week and character induced in part by the crisis in Mexican affairs and the railway labor problem characterized today's dull session. Mexican Petroleum was the weakest stock, declining almost three points, with a full point for American Smelting. Among war issues Air Brake, Baldwin Locomotive, Crucible Steel and Westinghouse receded one to two points, with similar declines in motors and obscure mining shares. St. Paul, Reading, Lehigh Valley, Illinois Central and Seaboard Air Line average one point losses, with more moderate declines in United States Steel and the metal group. Shipping issues furnished almost the sole exception to the lowering trend. United Fruit gaining almost three points. The closing was heavy. Bonds were irregular.

The final session of the week opened with a further depreciation of quoted values for which the more serious aspects of the Mexican situation were primarily responsible. Declines of a point were registered by Mexican Petroleum, United Fruit and Studebaker, with two points for air brake while other specialties lost material fractions, together with United States Steel, Reading and St. Paul. Moderate gains were made by Beet Sugar, Inspiration Copper and Willys-Overland. Heaviness became more general later, petroleum extending its loss to almost three points.

AUTHORITIES PREPARE TO BLOCK ALL BANDIT RAIDS

Brownsville, Texas, June 12.—Revival of bandit activity in the lower Rio Grande valley last night resulted in vigorous action by authorities which was interrupted today as a determined attempt to nip the periodical recurrence of outlawry in the country.

Soon after reports were received that bandits appeared near San Benito, several detachments of troops were sent to deal with them. Motor cars were commandeered in accordance with pre-arranged plans and two companies of the Twenty-Sixth Infantry were dispatched from Harlingen to Olmito ten miles north of Brownsville, with orders to cut off the bandits' retreat across the Rio Grande into Mexico. Meanwhile, another force of two companies of infantry sent from San Benito earlier in the night to investigate reports that the Joe Scott ranch had been attacked, found their quarry ten miles east of San Benito. A running fight took place in which, according to meagre reports available here, three Mexicans were killed while the American force suffered no casualties.

In addition to these two forces a troop of cavalry was thrown into the game of hide and seek played by the Mexicans, when reports came that another bandit force had appeared near the Fresno trail, 14 miles north of Brownsville and had robbed a Mexican farmer of his horses. The man escaped unharmed and reported the occurrence to Fort Brown from where the cavalry was sent.

Reports from the various detachments are awaited eagerly here and at Fort Brown today.

Much interest was displayed concerning the question whether if the bandits eluded the soldiers on this side of the Rio Grande and effected an escape into Mexico, the Americans would pursue a hot trail, across the international boundary or leave the corralling of the outlaws to the Carranza soldiers under General Biscuit, who recently announced that he had placed a sufficient force in this territory to deal with all outbreaks and that any crossing by the Americans would meet with armed resistance.

STANDARD OIL WILL EXPLAIN

Washington, D. C., June 17.—A special hearing has been set by the Federal Trade Commission for next Wednesday to enable the Standard Oil Company of Ohio to explain why it is able to charge several cents more a gallon for gasoline than is charged by its competitors. Commissioner W. J. Harris who has led in the commission's investigation into the causes for the increased price of gasoline, indicated today that the commission would take steps to enforce the attendance of representatives of the Ohio concern unless they attend the hearing voluntarily.

At a hearing a week ago attended by nearly all parties interested except the Ohio company, the commission reached the conclusion, Mr. Harris said, that the failure of the Standard Oil Co. of Indiana, to compete in the Ohio territory permitted the higher prices there and was one of the underlying causes of the demoralization of the oil industry. He said, too, that statements from officials of the Ohio concern were necessary to complete the report on the investigation which will be turned to the department of justice if evidence is found looking to a criminal conspiracy to raise prices. Mr. Harris expressed the opinion that the inquiry had the effect of preventing a further increase in price.

COLUMBUS SECURES THE NEXT C. E. CONVENTION

Visitors Enjoyed Boat Ride On Ohio Last Night; Convention Closes Sunday

At Saturday morning's session of the twenty-fourth annual session of the Southeast Ohio Branch of the Christian Endeavor convention it was decided to hold next year's convention in the Fifth Avenue United Brethren church in Columbus.

Rev. E. J. Pace, a returned missionary with headquarters in Dayton, O., and Rev. O. T. Deever, head of the Young People's Department of the United Brethren church with headquarters in Dayton, were among the Saturday morning arrivals.

The Saturday morning session opened at eight o'clock with a "Quiet Hour" session. Miss Ila Grindell, literature superintendent, gave an interesting talk on "The Why and How of Prayer."

Rev. E. J. Pace was the other speaker of the morning, his subject being "Experiences as a Foreign Missionary." Rev. Pace formerly of Chicago, recently returned from several years' experience as missionary in the Philippines. His talk proved deeply interesting and educational. The report of the committees followed.

The recommendation committee recommended that the Christian Endeavor of the Southeast Ohio branch raise $500 each year for the opening and support of a home mission field in the Southeast Ohio Conference.

The resolution committee presented a resolution thanking the press for their notices and the delegates, visitors and pastors for their attendance.

The remainder of the morning was given over to the balloting on new officers. The result was not known until late Saturday afternoon, several hours being required to count the votes. The result of the election follows:

President, Rev. E. E. Harris of Westerville.

Vice President, Prof. J. E. Newell of Jackson.

Junior Superintendent, Miss Stella Montgomery of Westerville.

Intermediate Superintendent, Fred A. Powell of Circleville.

Treasurer, Herman Rens of Ashville.

Corresponding Secretary, Miss Ila Grindell of Westerville.

Recording Secretary, Miss Ada Swartz of McArthur.

Efficiency Superintendent, Miss Bessie Wagner of Columbus.

Urged Use of Missionary Paper

"The Monthly Missionary Meeting" was the subject assigned to Miss Ila Grindell, of Westerville. Miss Grindell urged the use of the Endeavor's monthly missionary paper and the persistent use of good wholesome missionary topics. "The Missionary Committee" was omitted in the absence of Rev. G. T. Rosset, of Westerville, who was unable to attend.

Rev. O. J. Barnhaver, of Logan, was also absent, but Rev. R.

A. Hitt, Conference Superintendent, of Chillicothe, filled his place, and gave an interesting talk on "Why Use Weekly Envelopes?" Lay aside at the beginning of each week and put into the weekly envelopes your offering to the church.

Rev. E. E. Harris, of Westerville, talked on the subject, "The General Benevolences, What and Why?" Rev. Harris said that in general the benevolences were not understood. In describing what constituted general benevolences, he brought out that the offering to different church work, Sunday school, Christian Endeavor, home and foreign missions came under that head. By contributing to the different work it will stimulate interest in church work.

Every Member Canvass Endorsed

"The Every Member Canvass" was the subject of an address made by Rev. M. R. White, of Newark. Rev. White urged the use of the every member canvass as it is a means of getting in closer touch with both the young and old.

"Should Young People Give and How?" was the subject of an address made by Rev. J. H. Conkle, of Ironton. "Young people should give as it is taught by the Bible," said Rev. Conkle. "They should give systematically, freely and heroically," said Rev. Conkle.

In the evening the greater number of the delegates enjoyed a moonlight boat ride on the steamer Peerless, a trip of several miles being made up the river. It was the first time a number of the delegates from the smaller towns had ever been on a boat and they certainly enjoyed the trip. About thirty who did not care to make the trip enjoyed a song service followed by a prayer and testimonial meeting.

Nearly 200 are now in attendance.

Additional arrivals who registered Friday are as follows:

Columbus—Bessie Wagner.

Ashville—Hazel Wright, P. E. Wright.

Dundas—W. T. Rutherford.

Circleville—Ethel Steele.

Wellston—Opal McCornie.

Ringgold—Charles Bowman, O. A. Pettibone, Alva May.

Girls Brought Into Court To Impeach Testimony In The Lambert Murder Case

Waukegan, Ill., June 17.—The state today brought 18-year-old girls to court to impeach the testimony of Josephine Davis in the trial of Will H. Orpet for the alleged murder of Marion Lambert. The girls had attended Marion's eighteenth birthday party on February 6, three days before her death in Helms Woods near Lake Forest.

The first of the girls to take the stand, Bernice Wells, testified that Marion seemed happy at the party. The witness and the two friends spent the night of the party with Marion. Anna Paulson, who always had done so, was unable to stay.

"Did you see Josephine Davis take Marion aside into a room?" asked Mr. Dady.

"No, sir."

"Did Marion ever tell you of intimacy with any boy?"

"No, sir."

"Did you and Marion talk of Orpet after the party?"

"Yes, Marion said she had heard that Orpet was engaged to Celestia Youker. She said Josephine had written Orpet about it, but had received no reply. Marion didn't know what to make of the report."

The witness said she and Marion went to bed about 11 p. m. and talked till 2.30, largely about Orpet, but she recollected little about it.

"Did she say anything about Orpet's character, his temperament," interrupted Mr. Dady.

"She said Will had a bad temper and that Mrs. Lambert had forbidden him to come to the house," answered Miss Russell.

"Did she say anything else to indicate that it was a clandestine affair?" resumed Mr. Potter.

"No."

Surrenders Interest On $5,000,000 To Become A Bride

New York, June 17.—The Brooklyn Eagle today announces the engagement of Mrs. John Jacob Astor, widow of Col. J. J. Astor, who lost his life on the steamer Titanic, to William K. Dick, of Brooklyn. The wedding will take place at Bar Harbor, Maine, on June 19. Mr. Dick is a sugar refiner.

Mrs. Astor, who was Madeline Force, will by her marriage, surrender the income of a trust fund of $5,000,000 bequeathed to her by Colonel Astor in his will "for so long during her natural life as she shall remain his widow."

The will provided that in case of her remarriage the fund should go to Colonel Astor's son, W. Vincent Astor.

The Astor town house on Fifth Avenue, New York, its contents, were also bequeathed to her under the same conditions. Mr. Dick is understood to be very wealthy. His sister married a member of the Havemeyer family of sugar manufacturing fame.

A son, John Jacob Astor, was born to Mrs. Astor, about four months after Colonel Astor's death. The will provided outright for this expected heir a trust fund of $3,000,000.

SOCIETY

One of the most delightful affairs of this season in the young set was the beautiful dance given by Dr. E. J. Kline last evening at his handsome home on Fourth street, for the pleasure of his sweet young granddaughter, Miss Evelyn Reed, and her guest, Miss Sue Armstrong, of Hackensack, N. J. The rooms were exquisitely adorned in pink roses and ferns, as at the beautiful tea given by Dr. Kline in the afternoon, also for Miss Reed. The guests included ninety young people—the young women in their prettiest summer gowns and the young men in dress suits. The Misses Hutchinson, of Altoona, Pa., guests of Mr. Bea Schry, were the only out-of-town guests. Davison's famous orchestra rendered the entrancing music for the dancing. Dainty pink and green refreshments were served in the beautifully adorned dining-room. Miss Reed wore a charming gown of green and gold tulle, trimmed in yellow roses, a graduation gift from her grandmother, Mrs. Kline, and Miss Armstrong was attired in cornflower blue tulle trimmed in silver tulle and pink roses.

At Mrs. Carr's reception yesterday some one took, by mistake, an umbrella with a heavily carved handle, which the owner highly prizes. Please return the same to Mrs. Carr's home and oblige.

Miss Selma Lindenmeyer is spending a few days with her sister, Irma, at Cincinnati. Miss Irma has finished her first year in the study of voice and piano at the College of Music and expects to return home next Monday.

A party of Portsmouth people went to Mayville this afternoon to see the wonderful picture, "The Birth of a Nation," including Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Grimes, Mrs. J. S. Rardin, Miss Helen Rardin, Mrs. Cecil Miller and daughter, Rosemary, Mrs. Pauline McKee and Mrs. J. N. Ellison.

To very close friends of both young people, the engagement of Mr. Albert Geswein, son of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Geswein, of Fifth and Etna streets, and Miss Anna Freeman, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Freeman, of Eighth and Lawrence streets, has been announced. It is understood they will be quietly married next week and will reside at the old Geswein homestead—Ironton Irontonian.

Mrs. W. E. Gault and son, Ross, more, of Second street, left Saturday for Mayville, where they will spend several days with relatives.

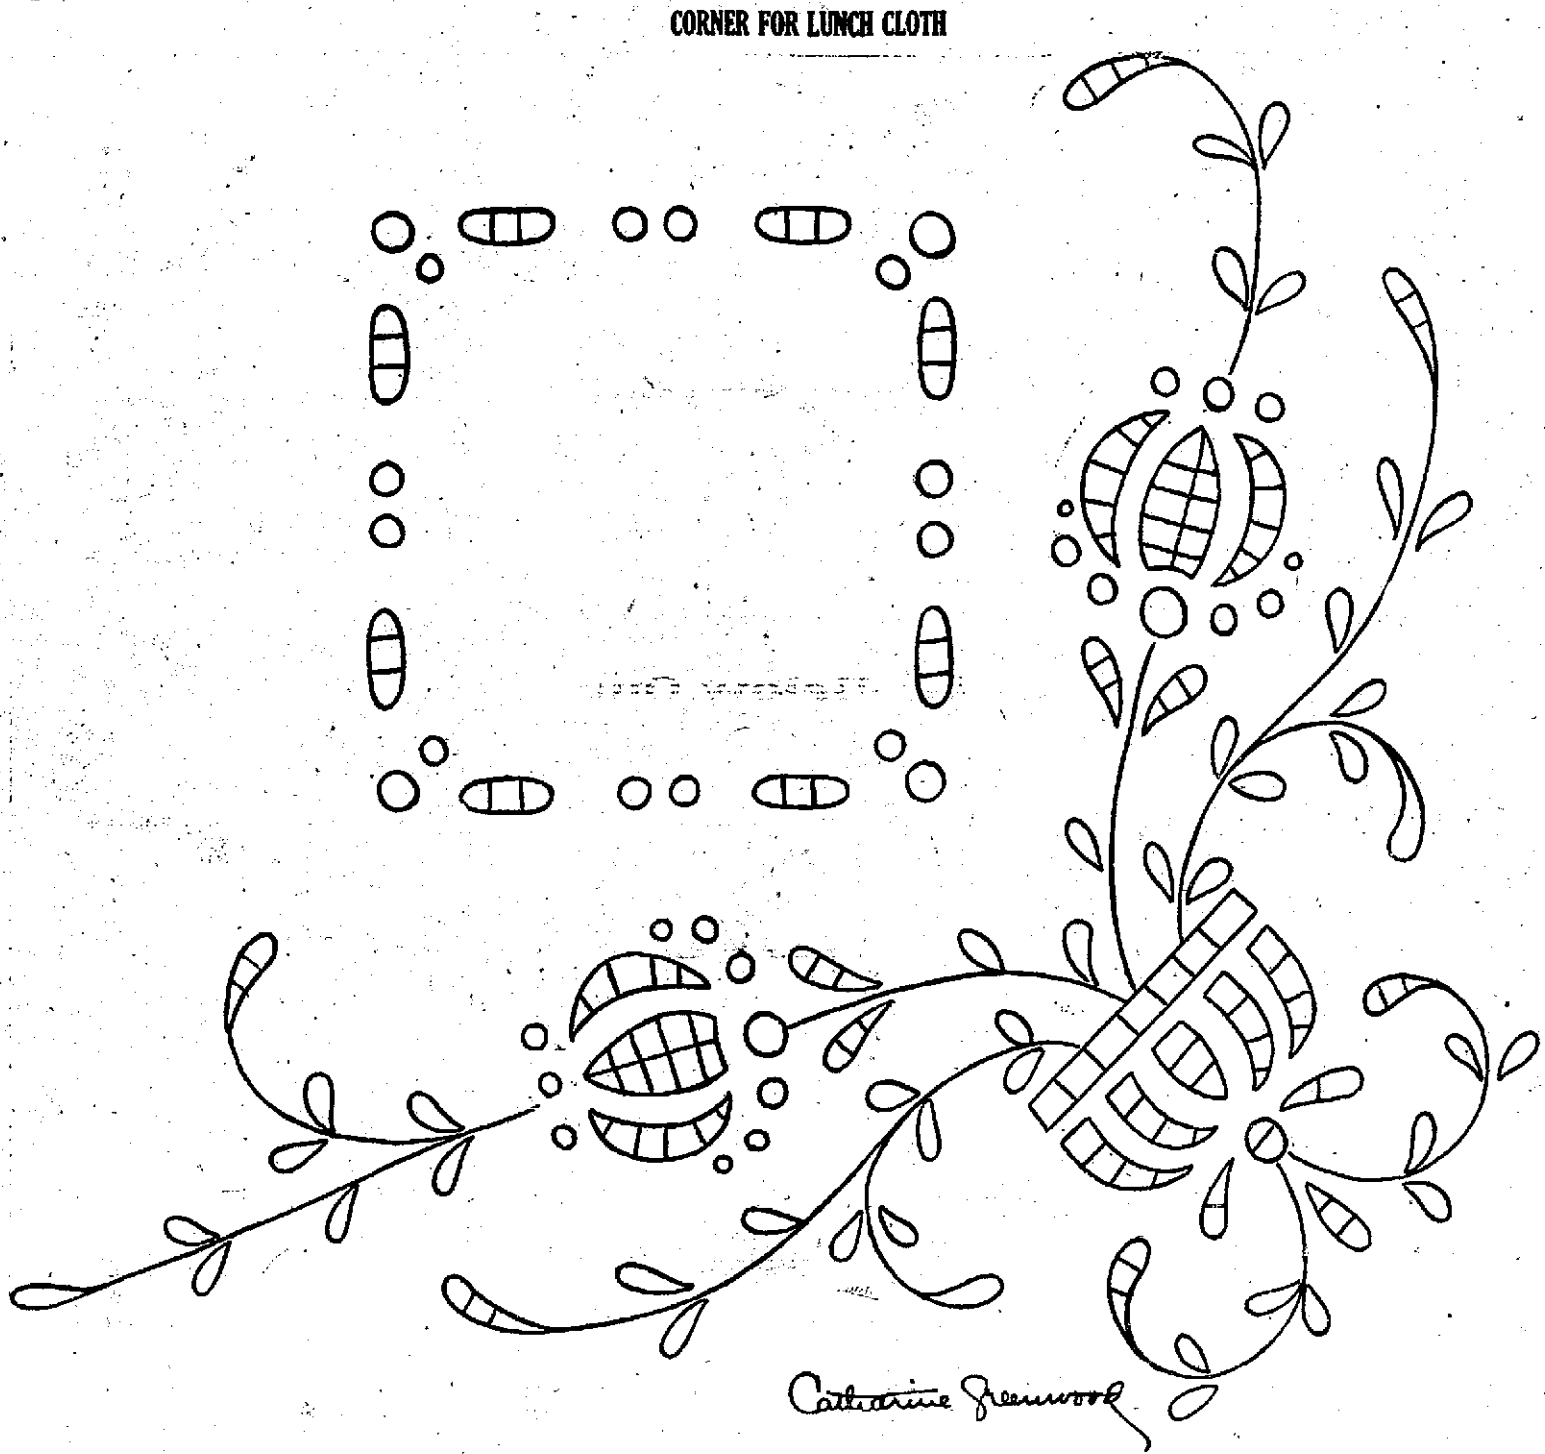

Miss Emma Collins, of 503 Waller street, will be graduated in piano music next Wednesday afternoon at Saint Aloysius Academy, New Lexington, Ohio. She will give her recital Sunday evening in the auditorium of the Academy and will be assisted by the vocal class. Miss Collins' grandmother and aunt, Mrs. Katherine Collins and Mrs. Charles Flynn will go to New Lexington for the graduation exercises.

Miss Lena Ida Marshall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Marshall, of Eleventh street, and Mr. Frank Henry Rowe, night clerk at the post-office, were married last evening at their own cozy home, 709 Sixth street. Rev. S. Lindenmeyer, pastor of the German Evangelical church, officiated. The happy couple left this morning for a two weeks' visit in Detroit, Mich., where they will visit the bride's sister, Mrs. Leslie Ross, and will also visit in Sandusky. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Albert Uhl. The bride wore a dainty gown of white shadow lace and net made over silk and carried a bouquet of bride roses. The bride has been employed for the past two years in the office of the Grimes-Strittmatter Company, by whom she is held in the highest esteem. On their return from their trip they will go to housekeeping on Sixth street.

The newly-born baby son of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Yates (Lary Bishop) of No. 632 Fifth street, will be christened James Herman Yates at St. Mary's church Sunday afternoon. Herman Huels, Jr., and sister, Miss Tillie Huels, will be the sponsors.

Mrs. Raymond D. York and little daughter, Ruth, left last night for Bluefield, W. Va., to visit Mrs. Harry Weller for a week, when she will be joined by her young son, Albert, and together they will go to Salem Willows, Mass., to spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. William Tritschler moved yesterday from Third street to a new home on Moulton Place.

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, frankness, woe, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, O. Office Phone 60.

sounds pretty, but really I cannot tell from here. Your writing and spelling are fair, but could be improved upon.

Dear Dolly—What was the name of the first serial picture Mary Fuller played in produced by Edison. WANT-TO-KNOW. The first serial that Mary Fuller played in is "What Happened to Mary." The story run in one of the Women's Magazines.

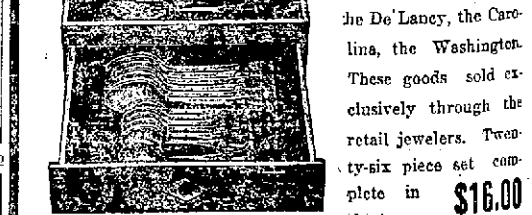

Dear Dolly—I come to you for advice and hope you will tell me what to do. I am a young man and am worried to death by the girls, always calling me over the phone and wanting me to come see them. Now, honestly, Dolly, what do you think of that kind of girls? I am sure I don't know Bill, what you are going to do. It does seem to me that girls who do these things would learn after awhile what the fellows say about them and what they think of them. I don't think a man could have much respect for a girl who continually tries to call his attentions to her. When a man wants to talk to a girl over the phone he won't be too bashful to do so.

Dear Dolly—I have been corresponding with a young man for several months, and his letters tell me he loves me better than any girl he has ever seen. He is now working in another city. He has been back to see me once since he has been gone away, but since he left the last time he has wrote to me often until here of late he has not answered my last letter. I wrote the letter on May 29, 1916, and he has never answered yet. He always writes to me every week. In his last letter he told me that he was getting home-sick to see me, but could not come without quitting his position, and he hates to do that, as he has got a good job and making lots of money. Would you advise me to write to him again? I love him and think he loves me, but can't find any reasons why he hasn't answered my letter. Please advise me what to do as this is hurting me. Do you think he loves me? I have brown hair and brown eyes and dark skin, weigh 104 pounds, 4 ft., 9 inches tall. Do you think I am pretty? How is my writing and spelling? JESSIE.

If he had been so terribly homesick to see you I think he would have kept on writing you as he had been doing. I wouldn't write to him again if I were you. You have done your part by answering his last letter and you say you can see no reason why he does not write. Well, let it go at that, although it may hurt for awhile. Try to forget him, because he evidently does not love you or he would not treat you thusly. The description you give of yourself

'SHOEMAKERS DAY' PARADE IS A SPLENDID SUCCESS

Baseball Pageant Headed By Messrs Selby, Williams And Drew, Fans Applaud "Old Timers" In Parade

Headed by Mr. George D. Selby, John H. Williams and Irving Drew, three prominent shoe manufacturers of Portsmouth, who have always rendered assistance to the Portsmouth Ohio State League ball club when called upon and who evince an interest in all kinds of wholesome outdoor sports, the "Shoemakers' Day Parade" moved this afternoon at 1:15 from the Times office.

Thousands of people turned out to see the parade and as the shoemakers' contingent passed by Messrs. Selby, Williams and Drew, who were in the front of the parade, they were enthusiastically applauded by the thousands of people who lined the streets.

At several places along the line of march, these men smiled expansively and doffed their hats to the applause of the thousands of people who lined the streets.

Following these "old timers" came the Portsmouth Brass Band and then prominent shoeworkers and fans walking on foot. A number of automobiles laden with people followed.

It was a fine turn out and "Shoemakers' Day" will go down in baseball history as an unequalled success.

The line of march was north on Chillicothe street to Gallia, east on Gallia to Waller and north on Waller to Ninth street, where special cars were boarded for Millbrook park.

The shoeworkers were to play the curtain raiser this afternoon and then the regular league game between Portsmouth and Maysville was to follow.

Immediately following Mr. Selby, Mr. Williams and Mr. Drew came the River City band headed by Drum Major Frank B. Pratt. Following this band came Manager Jimmie Jones and his band of Burley Cubs of Maysville. Wearing their prettiest smiles and garbed in their road attire of gray and red the Kentuckians were given the glad hand along the line of march. As this and that player was recognized he was forced to take off his cap.

Members of the Portsmouth Champs walking as blithely as if they were on their way to Pennantville and no one will deny that they are not, followed the Maysville Burley Cubs attired in their black and white home garb.

The players came in for their portion of applause, especially the old favorites, Dillhoefer, Manager Hooper, McHenry and Dills. All the players were in line and "the boys" were given a great send off.

Back of the Champs came members of the famous Saturday Afternoon League, an organization that did more to stimulate the game here than any other organization in the history of the city. As the spectators gazed into the smiling faces of these athletes old memories were awakened and one was instinctively carried back to the days when the Saturday Afternoon was a power in a local baseball way.

Such "old timers" as Eddie and Joe Brennan, Homer Selby, Frank Ray, Buck Yeager, William and John Doherty, Carl Reider, Edward Thomas, Clyde Banfield, Russell Egbert and Charles Nichols were in line and they came in for their share of applause.

Team Has Spirit

Manager Jones of the Burley Cubs expects to have Second Baseman Williams back in the game in a few days. "With Williams on second, Kaiser back at first and Keller in his old position at short and the acquisition of one more good pitcher and my team will be ready for the second half. The spirit is there. All I need is the players," Manager Jones said Friday.

Will Giants Win Pennant?

The Giants have only won four games at home this season. The dope has always been that the club that can win 60 per cent of its games away from home will win the pennant. "Wonder if the Giants will come through?"

GOING AFTER MATERIAL

Manager Jones of the Burley Cubs has wired to the four corners of the land for ball players. He intends to rebuild the Maysville machine for the second half. Last year the Cubs stepped out and grabbed Pennant No. 2 and the club owners intend to turn the same trick this year.

Ten Horses Entered In Latonia Derby To Be Run This Afternoon

Cincinnati, June 17.—Ten horses were entered to start in the 34th running of the Latonia Derby at the Latonia Ky. race course this afternoon. Six and possibly seven or eight, it was thought were reasonably sure to start.

The derby is worth $15,000 and as some of the best three year olds in the country were among the entries, the race promised to be an open one. The track was affected by the heavy rain of yesterday but it began to dry out last night.

George Smith, ruled favorite in the morning betting on account of his victory in the Kentucky derby. Big Smoke, Volary and some of the others have been doing splendidly and many looked to see the victor come from one of these.

The distance of the race is a mile and a half. The horses entered are: Gipsy George, Dick Williams, Captain Rees, Volary, Big Smoke, Dodge, George Smith, King Corin, Franklin, Elison, Weber and Ward.

THE SENATORS ARE BEATEN AGAIN

Charleston, W. Va., June 17.—After week grounds had prevented playing the first game of a scheduled double header between the Senators and the locals the Huntington team took its second game here yesterday by the score of 8 to 6. King, the Booster left-hander, started the game, but was replaced by Gaffin.

Marshall, the Senators' moundman, was tapped for eleven hits, his teammates making three errors, all of material aid to the Huntington bunch. King and Gaffin allowed four safeties, which by dint of good playing, the Senators developed into six runs. The score:

WELL, BOYS GET DOWN TO WORK

Portsmouth has 22 more games to play during the first half of the Ohio State league season.

President Gableman figured it out Friday that all the Champs will have to do is to win 12 out of these 22 games and the pennant will fly over Millbrook no matter what the other five teams will do in the way of victories and defeats.

Frankfort Here Sunday

Frankfort will be the attraction in Millbrook park Sunday afternoon, and the "Old Tigers" will face John Ferguson, premier pitcher of the Ohio State league. The Old Tigers have taken a big brace (and a bit or two) since last seen here and are going to put up four warm battles in Millbrook beginning tomorrow.

Will Use Squeeze Play

Manager Herzog is going to try the squeeze play. So many men have been left on bases in recent games that Herzog says he is going to instruct his men to practice the squeeze play. He contends that two games would have been won recently if he would have had a player, who could put the pith on the floor.

Carter's Great Record

Nick Carter may soon be recalled from Indianapolis by the Cleveland Indians. Nick, sah, has won 9 games and lost 1 this season, which is some record, Mr. Fan.

Negro Woman Has Terrifying Experience With Camp Negro

Alone all night with a man who was saturated with liquor and carried an ugly looking revolver which he threatened to use on her, was the experience of a woman known as "Sis" Dean, colored. John Dean, a negro at the Perkins construction camp, has been living with the woman whom he threatened to kill, for several weeks, according to the story told by "Sis."

Friday night about 11 o'clock, "Sis" claims she went over to the shanty at the Perkins construction camp, which is occupied by James Pryor and Anna Belle Vanison, a couple who were recently released from jail where they served a term on a charge of fornication, and called for John.

She says that "John came all right" and entirely too fast for her. He struck her, knocked her down and a free for all fight ensued in which "Sis" who is a portly woman, escaped and made a quick dash for her own shanty. John followed but "Sis" says she was too badly frightened to be captured that easy so she just hopped out a window and made a "bee line" for Uncle Joe Wheeler's cabin.

She says she just stumbled across the doorstep and dropped beside "Uncle Joe," who was seated on a trunk when "her John" poked his head through the door and threw his revolver over his crooked elbow and ordered her to come to him. She claims that she refused and "Uncle Joe" pleaded but the "negro had blood in his eyes." He told her that he would count three and if she wasn't out of the cabin by the time he finished, he would blow her head off.

Knowing John, she says, she immediately walked to him but felt all the time that he would kill her. She accompanied the negro to his shanty.

"I've just tell you all about it. Mister Sheriff, that man John is just going to kill me over that Anna Belle woman. I've tell you that I was plumed, I was, but I think that I would have been a dead woman if I hadn't gone to him."

Deputy Sheriff John Baer, learning of the fight and gun play, went to the Perkins camp Saturday and placed Dean under arrest. He was brought to the county jail Saturday.

When asked if Anna Bell and the negro known as James Pryor were at the house, "Sis" declared that there were several women, men and lots of liquor mixed up in the affair.

Philadelphia, June 17.—General S. C. Long, of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, today appealed to the 146,000 employees of the company's lines east of Pittsburgh asking for the continuance of their loyalty and calling for volunteers to maintain the service in the event of a trainmen's strike. The appeal reads in part:

"To the Employees of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company: Your attention is called to the fact that a conference which has been in session in the city of New York, general managers of the roads of the United States and the presidents of the four trainmen organizations has resulted in disagreement. A strike ballot is being taken by the train employees of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company.

"The total cessation of train movement will result in stopping work in all departments, with consequent loss of earnings to all employees.

"This company employs 146,000 men. Of this number, only 25,000 are in the train service. It is not reasonable to expect that the wages of the remaining 121,000 men, not in the train service shall be jeopardized or stopped by a strike of less than one-sixth of all the employees.

"The management, under the law, is required to operate the railroad in the interest of the public and if a strike eventuates, it will be incumbent upon all loyal employees to be faithful to their duty and operate the road.

"If this strike of trainmen is carried on, our company will require engineers, firemen, conductors, passenger and freight brakemen. The management calls the attention of all faithful employees to the necessity that may arise to meet such emergency.

"Those of you who feel and believe with the management that the traffic of the company must move, regardless of any wage controversy, and who are willing to volunteer their services to assist the company in doing its duty to the public, to the stockholders, and to the loyal and faithful employees, will send their names to their immediate superior officers, stating for what service they volunteer.

"The management gives assurances to those who may volunteer, and whose services are accepted, that they will be retained in the positions assigned them and receive the same protection that has always been afforded during crisis of this nature."

Wool in Early Virginia. Great encouragement was given in Virginia in early days to the raising and manufacture of wool. The assembly estimated that five children not over thirteen years of age could by their work readily spin and weave enough to keep thirty persons clothed. Six pounds of tobacco were paid to any one bringing to the county courthouse where he resided a yard of homespun woolen cloth made wholly in his family; twelve pounds of tobacco were offered as a reward for a dozen pairs of woolen hose knitted at home. Slaves were taught to spin and wool weavers and wool cards are found in the eighteenth century on every inventory of planters' house furnishings.

Wool in Early Virginia. Great encouragement was given in Virginia in early days to the raising and manufacture of wool. The assembly estimated that five children not over thirteen years of age could by their work readily spin and weave enough to keep thirty persons clothed. Six pounds of tobacco were paid to any one bringing to the county courthouse where he resided a yard of homespun woolen cloth made wholly in his family; twelve pounds of tobacco were offered as a reward for a dozen pairs of woolen hose knitted at home. Slaves were taught to spin and wool weavers and wool cards are found in the eighteenth century on every inventory of planters' house furnishings.

Another Block For Chillicothe Street

Another handsome new business block is to go up on Chillicothe street and it will be built by the Portsmouth Brewing & Ice Company. It will be a two story brick and concrete structure and will adjoin the Grand Opera House building on Chillicothe street.

It will have an ornate front of steel and glass and will be built so that an extra story may be added at any time. The dimensions of the building are 30 by 30. The former building on the lot, until destroyed by fire, was occupied as a saloon by Al Yuenger.

Bids for the construction of this new block will be opened tonight by Architects Ritter and Bates.

Enthusiasm Is High At The First Christian

With the promise of fair weather and enthusiasm at high tide, the attendance at Bible School at the First Christian church tomorrow promises to be well up in the 1000 mark. With special music, the song service will be inspiring and in a discussion of the lesson topic, "The Philippian Jailer," there is no question but the session will be an animated one. Superintendent Charles M. Howard will be on the job, refreshed from a ten days' vacation in Brown county. He has come back surcharged with new hopes and aspirations and will weather his enthusiasm within the four walls of the church building.

Mrs. Tuning, of Huntington, will be in charge of the big choir at all church services, and some special numbers will be rendered. In the evening a silver offering will be taken at the door, which will be placed to the credit of the choir.

Rev. Charles R. Oakley, who returned Saturday, from Georgetown, O., where he delivered an address before the Brotherhood Class, will deliver two sermons. At 10:30 he will preach on the subject, "The Temptation of Jesus," and in the evening his theme will be "The Message of Jesus." Come and hear Rev. Oakley, conceded to be one of the most forceful and most eloquent orators that ever spoke from a Portsmouth pulpit.

delivered a powerful address, presenting in his characteristic style a picture of what the country would have been had the Republican party been in power, and followed out such a policy as it must have followed had it lived up to its denunciation of what has been done, and here it is worth while to note that there has been just one dominant thought in this convention, namely that "The President has kept the country out of war." It has been the theme of every speaker, and it has been the one theme which when forcibly presented has invariably brought the delegates and the visitors to their feet.

The convention was proud of what has been done in the way of economic reform. The delegates were determined that the party shall continue its onward course and secure further remedial legislation, but no one forgot for a moment the world-wide war which is spreading death among men and imposing undesired burden on four generations; no one forgot for a moment the danger which confronts every neutral nation, the danger of being sucked into the flames. The horrors of the war have sickened the people while its nearness has alarmed them. They are grateful that peace reigns here in spite of misery into which so many nations have been plunged. This is the keynote of the campaign, this the tower of strength to the Democrat's cause. "The President has kept us out of war," that is a record upon which the party can offer him to the voters of the country.

The convention grew in enthu-

as it proceeded. Harmony was evident everywhere, and yet harmony plus the enthusiasm that usually accompanies a fight. When the convention adjourned everybody was happy. The delegates dispersed with the satisfaction of knowing they had contributed their mite to Democratic success and a mighty mite it was. The visitors go home feeling that the convention was well worth attending - and wondering when there will be another convention of any party so militant for peace and so peaceful in its militancy.

GERMS ARE DANGEROUS

Do not overlook the importance of having your home entirely free from disease germs which lurk in many places even in the most modern homes and become dangerous to good health. Every home should have a bottle of Hyclorite antiseptic ready for instant use, as there is nothing so effective when applied to burns, scratches or bruises, because Hyclorite instantly kills the germs that infect the wound or bruise.

For cold months, for cleansing the crevices as well as the surfaces of the teeth Hyclorite is positively necessary. Rinse the mouth and gargle with a few drops of Hyclorite and you will escape throat troubles and other germ diseases and the mouth and breath will be clean and sweet.

Hyclorite is used extensively in hospitals, by dentists and physicians and sold by druggists most everywhere. It is the one thoroughly reliable antiseptic and should be in every home. General Laboratories, Madison, Wis.

Local German's View Of European War

(Written by Louis F. Korth, former Editor of The Correspondent.)

Friday, June 16, 1916.

The drive of the Russians into Eastern Galicia seems to have been checked at least north of the Dniester, but fighting continues. It started two weeks ago in the Volhynian-Stry country northeast of Lemberg, which the Austrians occupied last year. After some surprise successes, which were magnified into victories with immense captures, the Russians forced the Austrians across the Stry river into Galicia and attempted to advance south between Strypa and Sereth but were checked by General Bothner (Bavarian) in a severe engagement at Buczacz on the Strypa. They renewed their attack the following day at Przewalka on the same line and again met defeat. Both attacks were made in massed formation and the losses were fearful. The Russian attempt to roll up Bothner's Strypa line has failed, Berlin says.

In the Pripiet Swamp country (Volhynia) where the Austrians have not been able to fortify their positions sufficiently, build deep trench work and bomb proofs, while the Russians hold the elevations behind which they concentrated for the drive with a very large artillery and commissary park, the Austrian lines were broken by the recapture of Lutsk, but German reserves, which arrived in time from Brest-Litovsk at Cholm and Kovell, defeated and routed the Russians at Kholm.

The victory does not only secure the German-Austrian front in Volhynia but endangers the Russian flank, as Kholm lies some thirty miles to the east of Lutsk.

An attempt of the Russians to break the Strypa line northwest of Ternopol on Bochn-Vermollis front was frustrated by their defeat near Kozlov with heavy losses to them.

What effect Bothners and Bothner's victories in the Strypa valley will have on conditions in the Dniester valley south of it, where large Russian columns have gone over the river into Bukovina and threaten Czernowitz, its capital, the next few days will tell. As the Russians have always held the line between Dniester and Pruth east of the frontier their reappearance before Czernowitz, as Petrograd reports, is not disquieting. Cossack raids across the Pruth haven often occurred.

Should the Russians however have forced the passage of the Dniester at Zaleszyki (bridgehead) north of Czernowitz the latter would be in eminent danger. Petrograd says that they have taken Sniatyn, 25 miles northwest of the capital, and cut the railroad to Stanislaw and Lemberg. Berlin reported under June 15, "Austrian troops in the Bukovina are making a stand north and east of Czernowitz. The repulse of Russian attacks from both these directions is announced in yesterday's statement from Vienna."

Petrograd cabled on June 16 that Czernowitz had been evacuated by the Austrians, which were concentrating at Kolomea. This is a strategic center in the Pruth region.

North of Pinsk at Baranovichi on Prince Leopold's front the Russians made no less than seven successive massed infantry attacks. They all broke down under the German fire.

On Hindenburg's "Duena" front southeast of Jakobstadt a Russian cavalry brigade was almost annihilated by artillery.

Great activity is also reported from Linsingen's front, where the German and Austrian lines join, probably to hinder Russian withdrawals.

Despite the Russian drive, which forced Austria to throw troops from the southern to the eastern front and encouraged the Italians to risk a counter offensive all along the Adige-Brenta line, things have not changed, to the better for the latter. In fact the Austrians have extended their lines on Italian territory east of Asiago beyond Ronci, stormed the Italian positions on Mount Meletta and south of Asiago occupied Mount Lemerle. They held all they gained east of Asiago and Arserio against the Italian attacks.

Signor Salandra a day before his retirement and during the Italian drive warned the people not to be too sanguine. Although the Austrians were checked in the Lagarina and Sugana Valleys he said, they had concentrated large forces before the Italian center near Fuguzzo Pass, from where the Venetian Plain was threatened as much as from Arserio.

From Mount Meletta the Austrians command the Brenta Valley and the railroad from Trient to Venetia, which runs through the Venetian Plain. By their advance east of Asiago the Italian eastern communications and the Sugana Valley are endangered. Austrian flyers have been busy destroying works and bridges on the railroads to Schio and Vicenza so as to cripple the Italian rear lines.

Slow but sure, in their methodical way, the Germans continue to gain on Verdun. Every day a little but it counts. A further advance west of Donauwurt was announced by the Berlin war office on Wednesday and Paris admitted on the same day that a footing was obtained by Bavarians and Pomeranians on Hill 321 west of Thiaumont and only a mile east of Brus on the road to Charny and the big bridge over the Meuse to Marre and Chateaufort on the west bank of the river, where by the same report a heavy artillery action was going on. As the Germans are also operating toward these places from their Belhincourt Camiers line (west) it is easy to see what is in progress.

Paris has admitted the capture of Fort Vaux. It says, "The Germans have brought up fresh effectives and advanced their artillery to positions from where they are pounding our 'main' defenses, especially the powerful batteries at Tavaannes and Fort Souville, the key to our inner works."

Berlin states that in the action west and south of Thiaumont a few days ago 945 prisoners were taken, among them 27 officers, 3 big guns and 15 machine guns.

There has been heavy fighting again at Ypres, principally for possession of the British key position on blood-soaked Hill 60 and around it. The British report that the Germans succeeded in getting into the trenches between Blauumont and Hamel and Berlin says they held them against several counter attacks. It admits however that the Bavarians had to give up again part of the positions on the Zillebeke Heights, which they took from the Canadians.

In their Mosul-Bagdad campaign the Russians have not only been checked by the Turkish victory at Khanikin on the Turkish-Persian border but forced to retreat to Kasrshirin, which they had fortified as a second line. The Turks flanked the town, stormed the rear works and captured the garrison and guns.

On the Tigris they sunk two British gunboats and three large barges with munition, destroyed four munition magazines on the river bank and captured a number of men.

British movements below Kut seemingly have come to a standstill after a defeat by the Turks.

In Armenia (Caucasus) the Turks now hold the greater part of the Erzerum-Trebizonde road and continue to drive the Rus-siens, as Constantinople states. In a fierce engagement at Shemdinan on the Irak front from the Caucasus to the Tigris the Turks annihilated a full regiment of Cossacks and captured their camp with stores of arms, munition and bridge material, herds of cattle and several hundred horses. The town was a supply depot.

Tuesday night the small German auxiliary cruiser Herzmann, which was conveying a number of trawlers on the voyage from Sweden to Stettin in the Baltic, was attacked by four Russian destroyers south of Stockholm. In the fight which ensued it was set afire by shells. The crew blew up the ship and saved itself in boats. Several trawlers were sunk. This is all there is of "the great naval battle in the Baltic," according to the German admiralty.

The big Italian transport Re Umberto (7,600 tons) was torpedoed on the voyage from Ancona to Brindisi. It carried reinforcements for Cadorna's army at Vicenza, which were withdrawn from Albania, between 2,500 and 3,000 men, of which few have been saved.

Italy is in the throes of a serious political crisis. The Salandra-Sonnino Cabinet, which is held responsible for the war, by the conservatives as well as by the socialists, has abdicated because the parliament refused Salandra a vote of confidence and the Socialists charged him with originating the war demonstrations to force the king's hand. A national cabinet has been formed by the hon. senior of the parliament, Paolo Boselli, an ardent war champion in the critical May days of 1915, in which all parties are represented, to prevent revolution.

The Vienna War Press Headquarters state that the Russian claims of captures are ridiculously exaggerated for ulterior purposes. They are to boast the new Russian losses in London and New York. It claims that the Russian losses in men are doubly and three times as high as the Austrians. Berlin says that the Russians are sacrificing their men in masses by entirely fruitless attacks.

In a cable letter from Bern (Swiss) a French parliamentarian is quoted to have declared at Versailles: "The war is practically won. The Germans would be glad to have peace if they could get it by withdrawing to their border, but we will not lay down our arms until the French tricolor waves over all German territory west of the Rhine and over Baden and Wuerttemberg." The French have toned down a bit. In early 1915 we saw a war chart of the Marne, in which Prussia was reduced to Brandenburg, Bavaria to Oberfranken and Saxony to Thuringia.

One of the most able war experts, the Swiss Colonel A. Muelier, in criticizing the assertion of the French minister of war that the German army was losing in effectiveness, declares that Verdun disproves him. The German Western army, as he has lately seen it, possesses the same spirit and battling power it had a year ago. Wherever he went along the Rhine he found big camps of reserves under drill, a million of men streaming to the front.

Dr. Reinhard, the Baltimore physician, who served with the American Red Cross in Serbia, has returned after a short sojourn in Germany. He states that the German people is absolutely convinced of victory and cannot be shaken in its confidence. Everybody is following his pursuits as if there was no war. Germany has soldiers and bread enough to outlast the enemy, he says.

Although the supply of barley for the brewing industry in Germany had to be cut short by 60 per cent to make up a deficiency in cattle food all the big breweries have declared high dividends, the Lyon Brewery in Munich 18 per cent, others in proportion. Much of the product is being bought by the government for army consumption. The German soldier gets his pint every day but no spirits.

The Rhine-Danube Canal Co., which plans to deepen the Upper Danube sufficiently to make it navigable for big boats and build a canal to the Rhine, thus connecting the North Sea with the Black Sea for navigation, has been incorporated with 50 million dollars. Peace efforts in war times.

Among the twenty new big passenger steamers which Germany has been building during the war, 700,000 tons to be doubled within a year, are the giant Hamburg-America liner Bismarck, which is larger than either the Vaterland, Imperator Aquitania and Britannic, and the Bremen-America liner Hindenburg, another giant of the ocean. 1,318 tenement houses for the poorer classes, mostly factory workers, in Dublin have been condemned as unfit for habitation and 3,204 more ought to be, says a correspondent of the Associated Press in a report about the causes of the recent revolution in Dublin. They harbor over 87,000 people out of a population of 300,000. A Swiss paper says, "Rooseveltian America must be suffering badly from neurasthenia, if it fears attack from any of the poor cripples that are now fighting to see which one will have to bury the rest and then look for a place to liek his sores."

A Citizens Committee of New York is fitting out a steamer with a cargo of condensed milk for infants in Germany and Austria. The government is to intercede with England for unobstructed passage of the ship to Stettin. It will cost $425,000 to buy ship and cargo. The money is to be raised by private subscription.

The Russian Duma has passed a law for the regulation of meat consumption. Four meatless days a week are ordained, a Reuter

Demonstrations against Venizelos have taken place in Athens. The New York Morgan Syndicate has made a war loan of fifty million dollars to Russia. Allied fleets bombarded the Southern Bulgarian coast from Port Lagos to Dedegatch, whose inhabitants sought security in the interior. # She starts like a Sprinter at the Crack of the Gun Jeffery Six

INSTANT response—spectacular performance—riding comfort and driving comfort—surpassing simplicity of design—these have made the Jeffery Six nationally known as the car which teaches you what the word MOVE really means. Step on the accelerator and the car is off like a sprinter at the crack of a gun—like a FLASH.

She picks up speed in a distance so short that you can't believe your eyes. You hit forty miles before you think you've hit twenty—and then—

Step on the accelerator. You'll have a new sensation. She literally leaps—like an eager thoroughbred—to tremendous speed in a moment.

Yet the motor is so quiet that men who haven't had their cars for more than a few days, almost put the self-starter out of commission by throwing it in when the car is standing still and they think the motor has stopped—when it hasn't.

And it's all velvety power and velvety speed. There is no vibration—no uncomfortable jolting—nothing but superlative riding comfort and driving comfort—because of the wonderful motor and simple chassis construction.

Have you seen the Jeffery Six? If you haven't—do it now. You gain nothing by delay. Our allotment is rapidly dwindling and the factory cannot increase its output.

The price is $1450—and the amount of usable value, power and speed which you get for every dollar of that price is best shown by the fact that within thirty days after the first appearance of this car the Thomas B. Jeffery Company had to double its planned output of it—because of the immediate and extraordinary demand.

Come in and look it over—and ask us to demonstrate every claim we make.

The Jeffery Six—seven passenger touring—$1450

The Judge's White Gloves.
In the olden days judges were forbidden to wear gloves on the bench for fear of bribes being dropped into them. If there were no cases to be tried, however, there was no opportunity for bribing, and the sheriffs might give the judge a pair of gloves; hence the custom of presenting a judge with a pair of white gloves when he has no cases to try at an assizes.

Chalmers Announces A New 1917 Model

Following a record 7 months' business in which the entire 1916 production was disposed of, Chalmers Motor Company is among the first of the big automobile concerns to announce new models for 1917.

"When our dealers contracted last November for $22,000,000 worth of Chalmers cars, we emitted upon that figure as covering a big year's production," said Hugh Chalmers. "At the end of May, just seven months from the time our Six-30 model was announced, our dealers had delivered the $22,000,000 worth of cars into the hands of owners. We have gained not only 792 percent sales for the past seven months, but have added 631 new dealers to our representation in that period."

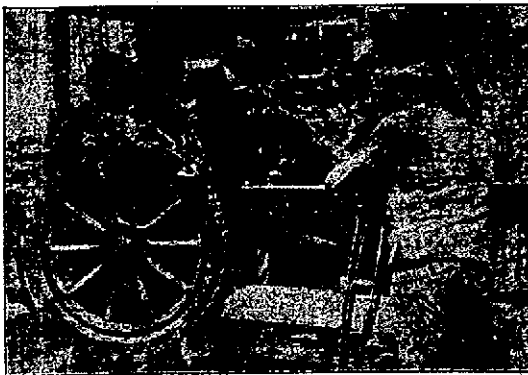

"In every respect the Chalmers

Six-30 has been the most successful model ever produced by our company. It has been driven over 1,000,000 miles by owners, and our service records show a percentage of 99.21 per cent perfect. In response to the demand of our dealers we are continuing this model with slight improvements as a leader in our 1917 line. We have never made a car so good, so it is only natural that we should build on the 3400 r. p. m. Chalmers as a basis for our 1917 product."

For the coming season, the 3,400 R. P. M. Chalmers will be produced in two lengths of wheelbase; a 115-inch five passenger car and a distinct touring and closed body styles have been built, incorporating the most advanced trend of design.

The seven passenger Chalmers reflects the influence of foreign design on American body lines. From the slant of the hood, on through the tilted windshield and double cowl, the car has the appearance of an expensive European creation. The extra inches of wheelbase insure a tonneau of full capacity for five passengers, without crowding the driver's compartment in any way.

Disabled British Soldiers Taught Useful Trade

In order that disabled soldiers may have some good livelihood after the war, and may not even at present be a burden on the community, the British have instituted vocational schools for such soldiers.

The illustration taken from a recent issue of the Leicester Daily Post shows how some of the convalescent men are being taught automobile engineering.

The 'Nobby' Tread Tire which is so much in evidence in the picture shows the immense popularity in England as well as in the United States of these famous anti-skid casings.

Hot Weather Does Not Increase Air Pressure In Automobile Tires

"Hot weather does not increase the air pressure in tires to an extent that will in any way injure them," says a Fisk Rubber Co. official.

"It is the general impression that with approach of the warm season one must carry tires at low pressure.

This is decidedly the wrong thing to do. It has been definitely determined by careful tests that the expansion caused by hot weather and hot roads is so slight that it cannot cause any damage.

"On the other hand the decreasing of air pressure really increases the heat of the tire because side walls are subjected to greater bending strain and friction between the layers of fabric.

"Under-inflation causes excessive flexing of the fabric, and tends to loosen it and weaken the tire.

"If proper air pressure is carried unnecessary annoyance and expense will be avoided. Regular testing of air pressure is as essential as any other detail of the care of motor cars."

FORD AUTO A UNIVERSAL CAR

How truly "universal" is the Ford car. H. J. Mortensen, of Spanish Fork, Utah, makes the following contribution to Ford's natural history:

"A short time ago, we purchased one of your cars from the agent at Provo, Utah. I have been studying the Manual, and notice that you have a remedy for everything, save one.

"I have a White Leghorn rooster and how to keep him off the steps of the car is beyond me. As soon as the car comes in, the rooster comes running, jumps up on the running board and starts fighting and pecking away at his own image, reflected in the bright paint. He hops down, looks all around under the car for the other rooster, and then up on the board again, pecking away. This is a nuisance, although a credit to the polish of the car."

No, there isn't a remedy. It's just another evidence of the place which the Ford car holds in the family circle.

Mitchell Success Is Emphasized In "Six"

To build a car as good as it can be built and then to build up the production on a quantity basis so it could be marketed at the lowest possible price without in any way stinting the car has ever been the Mitchell way. How well they have succeeded is emphasized in the new product for this year, "The Six of '16."

Plant That Feigns Death.
In South America there is a plant, a species of mimosa, which resorts to death feigning, evidently for the purpose of preventing grass eating animals from eating it. In its natural state this plant has a vivid green hue, but directly it is touched by a human finger or by any living animal it collapses into a tangle of apparently dead and withered stems.

SHE'S THERE BECAUSE SHE PERFORMS—THE 3400 r. p. m. CHALMERS

Most cars start alike. But very few finish alike. Therein comes a mighty difference.

Step on the little button 10 months after date and you'll readily note the inequality.

One is sluggish, "dead", without emotion, and responds to the touch with the speed of old-time oxen responding to the lash.

The other is alive, alert, ready; radiates desire to plunge ahead.

This is the 3400 r. p. m. Chalmers kind. The other kind is the species known to the trade as "one-year" cars.

Chalmers makes a five-year car. There's many an old 1909 Chalmers 30 Blue Bird giving a good account of itself today. You'll find the everlasting pep there five years from the day you take your first turn at the wheel.

Largely because of the 3400 r. p. m. engine. Which delivers mighty power with easy effort.

It's mostly in the design. The pistons are aluminum, about two pounds lighter per piston; the reciprocating parts lighter, which eases up the thrust on the bearings.

Then the crank-shaft, which is very heavy, and balanced to the weight of a hair in a special Chalmers device, spins at the rate of 8400 revolutions per minute.

It means excellent reserve power. For at 10 miles an hour the engine is turning up only 500 r. p. m. while at 20 she is doing about 1000 r. p. m. So that at excessive road speed she has the punch to deliver when called upon.

16% of her power is used at 10 miles an hour. So that she has 60% to 84%—when a twisting, hilly road looms ahead, when a sharp corner with a rugged grade hoves in sight; when the man ahead is showing you too much dust.

You'll like the 3400 r. p. m. Chalmers for one single little reason. She sure can perform.

Ask your dealer about Chalmers service inspection coupons, negotiable at all Chalmers dealers everywhere. This system is a most important consideration in buying your car.

TWO HUNDRED DRIVE REO CARS AWAY

"Two hundred and one Reo dealers and buyers came to the factory at Lansing in one week and drove their cars away," says R. C. Raeschaw.

"Fifteen to twenty dealers a day is the average, and most of them come from our own state, Michigan. Nor does the shortage of railway cars alone account for this. Many dealers, and especially buyers, derive a good deal of pleasure and satisfaction in driving their own car right from the factory to their home."

France in Hindustan.
Surprisingly few people remember that France owns five little tracts scattered over the peninsula of Hindustan. They are Chandernagor, near Calcutta; Pondicherry, Karikal and Yanam, on the Coromandel coast, north or south of Madras, and Mahe, on the Malabar coast, almost due west of Pondicherry. The total area of the five is about 215 square miles, but the population numbers about a quarter of a million, and the total volume of trade is worth something like $7,000,000, only $1,500,000 being imports and practically all the rest being rice sent to France itself or other colonies. Pondicherry, the seat of government for all these tracts, is eighty-three miles south of Madras.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.
Text of the Lesson, Acts xvi, 19-34. Memory Verses, 34, 36—Golden Text, Acts xvi, 31—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.
In verses 16-18 of our lesson chapter we read of an evil spirit possessing a woman who, as she followed Paul and his friends, cried out, "These men are the servants of the Most High God."

who show unto us the way of salvation." She continued to do this many days, but Paul, being grieved by even so good and true a testimony from such a source and knowing her to be controlled by an evil spirit, commanded the spirit to come out of her. In the name of Jesus Christ, and he did. It was certainly strange to hear such a testimony from such a source, but Capernaum one day when Jesus was present cried out, "I know thee who thou art, the Holy One of God!" And Jesus commanded the spirit to come out of the man (Mark 1, 23-26).
Truth may be talked without being known in the heart, but the Lord reads the heart and does not want testimony from His enemies. Knowing the truth about the Lord Jesus does not save any one, for it may be that many think they are saved because they believe that Jesus lived and died and rose again and that He is the Son of God. But it is He that hath the Son of God; that hath life, and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life. Only such as receive Him become children of God (1 John v, 12; John 1, 12).
When those who employed this woman and made money by her saw that this source of income was taken from them they incited a riot against Paul and Silas and had them beaten and cast into prison, and the jailer, having received a charge to keep them safely, put them in the inner prison and made their feet fast in the stocks (verses 19-24). There are some things right on the surface of this record, and one is that people are apt to grow very angry if they are making money wrongfully and their business is interfered with. Compare the riot of the silversmiths at Ephesus in chapter xix, and then think of the opposition of the liquor dealers and all who dishonor Jesus Christ to the work and teaching of Rev. William Sunday and all true evangelists; also the opposition of those who profit by graft to those who desire righteousness.

Then notice that if you won't let the devil help you he will take pains to show you how he can hate you and persecute you. Compare in Ezra iv, 1-5, the decided opposition of those who were not permitted to help in the work. There are still those who are ready to help in many a good work if they may belong to the devil while they do it. But if asked to renounce the devil and to receive the Lord Jesus and put their trust in His great sacrifice as the Son of God, then one is apt to witness the enmity of the carnal mind against God.
How grand was the victory of faith in these men of God, who, with sore and bleeding backs and feet in the stocks, could praise the God whose they were and whom they served and talk with Him in heaven from their prison! Not only did the other prisoners hear them praising God, but they were heard in heaven, and suddenly the earth was shaken, and the prison doors were opened and every one's bonds loosed (verses 25, 26). Oh, how great and wonderful is our God, the God of Israel, who only desires! (Ps. lxxix, 18, 19). As some one has said, these men had not influence enough on earth at Philippi to save them from this shameful treatment (1 Thess. ii, 2) and from prison, but they had influence enough in heaven to shake the earth. It was midnight when they prayed and sang praises, but the God of Israel neither slumbers nor sleeps: He watches over His people night and day (1's cxli, 4; Isa. xlviii, 11).
Not only was the prison shaken, but the keeper was so shaken when he saw the prison doors open that he would have killed himself if Paul had not cried out, "Do thyself no harm, for we are all here!" For, falling down before Paul and Silas, he brought them out and said, "Sir, what must I do to be saved?" They did Paul at this unexpected midnight service speak to him and to his house the word of the Lord, and he believed—that is, he received the Lord Jesus Christ—and, being saved, they confessed Christ and in baptism were all filled with rejoicing. The second household at Philippi (verses 11, 13, 27-34).
Reading of saved households, I always think of the Lord's word to Noah, "Come thou and all thy house," and I find great encouragement to believe that the Lord still loves to save households. It would seem that before the baptism these poor scoundrel backs were made more comfortable, and then what a love feast they must have had in the jailer's house, and what joy there was in heaven as well as on earth! Next morning those who had imprisoned the apostles wanted to let them go privately, but Paul insisted upon a public acquittal, which was granted them, and after a call upon Lydia they departed.

W. W. GATES CHOSEN PRESIDENT OF SCIOTO COUNTY S. S. ASSOCIATION

W. W. Gates, superintendent of the Second Presbyterian Sunday School was elected president of the Scioto County Sunday School Association which was organized at the Scioto County Sunday School convention held at the Second Presbyterian church Friday afternoon and evening. Nearly every church and Sunday School in the county was represented. Considerable enthusiasm was displayed in the organization of a county association and splendid officers were elected to see that the work moves along in the forward direction. The slogan of the association is "Forward, Not Backward."

The afternoon session was in charge of Chairman Conrad Roth, J. L. Weaver led the song service and Rev. B. F. Caudill, of the First Baptist church, the devotional. Rev. George P. Horst, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church gave the address of welcome to the convention and city. A response was made by Rev. I. C. Peitsmeyer, pastor of the Lucasville M. E. church.
A nominating committee composed of Mrs. Frank Appel, T. F. Kent of Madison township, and W. W. Gates were appointed. Mrs. W. H. Smith of the Second Presbyterian church, gave a short but interesting talk on "How Can We Get Our Pupils to Prepare the Lesson?" M. G. Bailey, superintendent of the Secondary Department of the State Sunday School Association of Columbus, O., gave a very instructive talk on the subject of "Who's the Teacher?"

The evening session started at 7:30 o'clock and was in charge of J. H. Finney, chairman. T. C. Lloyd led a fifteen minutes song service. Devotional service was in charge of Rev. C. Lloyd Streeker in the absence of Rev. A. L. Marling. Mrs. B. F. Kimble rendered a beautiful solo, after which the unfinished business was taken up and disposed of.
The election of officers was the only work laid aside at the afternoon session. The acting secretary then read the list of officers nominated by the nominating committee. The officers as follows were elected:

President, W. W. Gates.
Vice President, G. W. White of Harrisonville.
Secretary, M. H. F. Kinsey.
Treasurer, Wm. Hazlebeck.
Elementary Superintendent, Vesta Stockham.
Secondary Department Superintendents, Mrs. H. H. Higgins and Lloyd Craden.
Superintendent Adult Department, Mrs. Carrie Baty.
Superintendent of Teachers' Training, Mrs. Isabelle Thomas.
Temperance Superintendent, J. H. Finney.
Missionary Department Superintendent, Mrs. W. T. Gilliland.
Home Department Superintendent, Mrs. Freeman W. Chase.
Visitation Department Superintendent, Conrad Roth.

W. W. Gates gave a short talk urging hard work on the part of all Sunday Schools in the new organization. "Let the state association know we are on the map, let them know we are alive down here," said Mr. Gates.
He told of the state Sunday School Association meetings to be held next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday in Findlay, O., and urged all who could to attend. He also asked the help of all in preparing for a county convention of Sunday School workers to be held early this fall, probably in November. More of the country people will be able to get out in the fall as they are kept home now by farm work.
Mr. Bailey then gave a very interesting talk on "Our Opportunities" in which he urged the opening of the church every day in the week to the young boys and girls. "Be consistent in that which you give out and your efforts will bear fruit," said Mr. Bailey. "Present the life of Christ through the life of today. Don't be so conventional in the church, too much conventionality is what is spoiling the boys and girls in church and Sunday School work today. Meet the desire and demand. Set the right example for the boys and girls and they will follow. Be more natural with the boy and girl. Scioto county was one of the few counties who did not have a county Sunday school organization."

Storm Wrecks Tented City And Boy Scout Conference Adjourns

The hard storm of Friday afternoon brought the Boy Scout Encampment and Conference being held at Lucasville to a very abrupt end. The hard wind played havoc with the little tented village and the scouts got a good drenching. The storm broke just as the Lucasville and Sciotoville Scouts were starting for the ball diamond to pull off their game, which was one of the conference features for Friday afternoon.

Conditions were such after the storm that Scout Executive M. H. F. Kinsey thought it unwise to keep the delegates in camp for another night and the conference adjourned. The debate which was scheduled for the evening between Messrs. Snively and Schmitt was postponed—the committee deciding to hold the debate in Portsmouth at a later date.
The conference in spite of the storm was a great success, the earlier sessions being the best ever held since the county organization was formed.
Troop No. 11 of Portsmouth carried off the honors in attendance, having the largest number of registered delegates present. Troops one and ten ran a close second.

Franklin J. Dever was appointed secretary to fill out the unexpired term of Harry W. Wagner. The next session of the conference will be held at Sciotoville early in December.
The following scoutmasters and assistant scoutmasters were present at the conference and helped in the direction of its activities: M. H. F. Kinsey, John Snively, S. Lindemeyer, N. B. Griffin, Ralph Cornuelle, Claude Brant, Irvin Westlake, Cecil Tidd.

IN SCREENLAND

INTRODUCING Mr. William S. Hart, of Luce Triangle fame. He made his name primarily in pictures with the New York Motion Picture company. Mr. Hart was born in Newburgh, New York, on December 6, 1870.

When about six months old he was taken west. Never saw a city until he was sixteen years old, when he went to Minneapolis and was provided with his first pair of shoes. He has been chasing around in mocassins with the rest of the Indians. All this time, however, Mr. Hart had had an ambition to be a soldier. His ambitions were realized in a way—when, in London, he landed a job carrying a spear as a "sapper." When eighteen years old he returned to New York and went on the road. From then he riz with rapidity, playing leads with such real people as Modjeska, Julia Arthur, etc. Then came pictures. Mr. Hart has, among other things, attained to a height of six feet one inch. He has brown hair, blue eyes and weighs one hundred and ninety pounds. He's not married. "Never had a chance," quoths he. Whatta-boy!

The Lyric theatre for next week offers another program of top-notch productions, something really good every day.

Antonio Moreno and Dorothy Kelly in "The Supreme Temptation," a five part Blue Ribbon feature for Monday.

Tuesday's Paramount is beautiful Marie Doro in "The Heart of Nora Flynn" and a reel of the famous Paramount-Bray Cartoon comedy.

Kitty Gordon in "Her Maternal Right" is the big "World" feature for Wednesday and it's a wonderful picture.

Thursday brings the one and only "Billie Burke" in the most interesting and elaborate picture undertaking of the age "Gloria's Romance," a romantic novel by Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Hughes.

Don't forget—it's Thursday and see the first episode "Lost In The Everglades." As an added attraction on Thursday "The Social Pirates" will also be shown.

Friday's Paramount brings another favorite Pauline Frederick in "The Moment Before," a striking dramatic production supplemented with a reel of Burton Holmes travel pictures, the best travel pictures in the world, now being released as an added attraction on the "Paramount program." You will enjoy every inch of these interesting travels—you must not compare them with any travel pictures you have ever seen. These pictures are great, and cost as much as a five reel feature.

Marguerite Courtot in an artistic production of Nathaniel Hawthorne's classic romance "Feathertop" is the Saturday attraction. The admission is 10c for adults and 5c for children every day. The good music of Davison's Trio is always a feature at the Lyric.

Another good program of high-class picture productions will be offered each day at the popular Columbia next week, as you will see by the following list: Starting on Monday with one of those justly famous "Triangle" programs when you will see "London Ann," a highly interesting five-part Griffith production featuring little Mae Marsh of "The Birth of a Nation" fame; Monday's Keystone comedy is "Gypsy Joe," a two-reel laugh promoter, with Joe Jackson and Dora Rodgers.

Tuesday is "Metro" day and "The Upstart," with Marguerite Snow, is one of the best of the many good Metro pictures for several weeks. The ever popular Theda Bara comes on Wednesday in another big Fox production, entitled "Gold and the Woman." You have never seen the world's most famous vampire woman in a stronger, more powerful, more sensational feature than this picture.

H. B. Warner and Dorothy Dalton in "The Raiders" on Thursday.

give us one of the best pictures up to date on the "Triangle" program. This picture has been a big repeater wherever shown and many theatres have played return dates over and over. Thursday's Keystone comedy is "The Love Riot," and like the title, it is simply a real riot of fun from start to finish.

"A Fool's Paradise" on Friday comes from the Ivan studios and is a better and more sensational picture than "Forbidden Fruit," which was produced at the same studio and by practically the same cast.

On Saturday will be offered "The Scarlet Road," a five-part Kleine production, featuring Anna Q. Nilson, Ivy Shepherd and Della Connors.

FLASHES

Work on the new addition being made to the Columbia theatre is progressing rapidly. The house is to be one of the largest in Southern Ohio when the addition is ready for use.

Charley Chaplin had his life insured this week for $250,000. The Mutual Film Company is to pay the premiums.

Eight new picture houses opened this week in Coney Island in New York.

Albert Capellani, who recently completed "La Vie De Boheme" for the World Film is now supervising the production of "The Dark Silence," in which Clara Kimbrell Young makes her next appearance on the screen for the World.

Alice Brady, and twenty-seven World Film players, spent the past week at New Bedford, Mass., where numerous of the scenes to be used in "Miss Petticoats" were staged aboard the whaler, "Charles W. Morgan," the remaining, typical American whaler.

The Universal Film Manufacturing company will begin at once moving its eastern producing staff to Universal City, Cal., practically abandoning its eastern studios at Universal Heights, Port Lee and Catesville, N. J.

Two hundred people figure in the ball-room scene of the Lasky-Paramount production in which Mae Murray stars as "Sweet Kitty Bellairs." The scenes are laid in the latter part of the eighteenth century.

If an exhibitor can't work up a pleasant word or a smile for his patrons, it's best to keep out of sight. Gracches are just as welcome as bill collectors.

Robert Leonard and Elba Hall keep up their heavy scoring in the 2-reeler, "The Silent Man of Timber Gulch." The pair have a fitting vehicle so it shortens matters by saying the picture is well worth seeing.

Emory Johnson and Dorothy Davenport have an appealing offering, an offering with a really unusual story, in "The Two Mothers." There are some real heart throbs in this two-reeler.

"The Fireman" is to be the name of Charley Chaplin's new film. He promises his millions of admirers that it will be no "false alarm."

With 491 parts to his credit, Claude Cooper, star of the new Thanhouser-Mutual comedies, has established a new high record.

LOVES ANIMALS

William S. Hart, famous wherever motion pictures are shown, as a western bad man, is a lover of animals, particularly horses and dogs. In "The Primal Lure," Triangle-Luce feature, in which Hart is starred, the actor is seen as the friend of a "Husky," an Alaskan dog that plays an important part in the story.

MANY PICTURES ARE ANNOUNCED

Many big pictures are announced for summer engagement along Broadway. Griffith, Ince, Thomas Dixon and others have been busy seeking locations for their brain children—but it is safe to say that none more interesting or vividly artistic will be seen at any of the higher priced houses than Alice Brady in Albert Capellani's production of "La Boheme," which was completed last week and which, when seen by Puccini, composer of the opera, was so beautiful that he refused to consider endeavoring to procure an injunction.

DO YOU KNOW THAT

William A. Brady's first production on the stage was "Sue."

Lubin's first picture was a hot reeler called "Horse Eatin' Hay."

Muriel Ostriche wants to be an auto racer—and owns an Oldsmobile.

German chemicals essential to film developing are now made in U. S. A.

World Film is conducting a scenario contest—open to all—prizes $5000.

Louise Messecann refuses to go to Los Angeles to work in films.

Mary Pickford took cooking lessons and often prepares the family meal.

Alice Brady's first stage role was in "The Balkan Princess" at the Casino.

Charlie Chaplin came to America as a fifteen a week acrobat—some rise?

Centipede Island in the Caribbean Sea was photographed and made into a one reel educational. The insects were fourteen inches long in some instances.

"Then I'll Come Back To You" with Alice Brady, is playing the Wonges Kianze Theatre, Hong Kong, while you are reading this! It has been there for six weeks. It will remain many more.

Director William Robert Daly, of the Selig company, was a stage director at the age of 19, and has been identified with the theatrical profession ever since!

At The Exhibit
"Big Jim Garrity" is a Pathé Gold Rooster play in five parts featuring Robert Edson supported by a superior cast including Eleanor Woodruff.

The story opens in a mining district in Georgia. "Big Jim" Garrity, as he is affectionately known to his fellowmen, is superintendent of a mine owned by an old man and infirm man. This man's nephew is an unscrupulous doctor and victim of a habit-forming drug, which he also distributes to the mine workers. The old man dies, leaving his mine to "Big Jim," in whom he had faith, and leaving his dissolute nephew a small monthly allowance. The mine is to go to this nephew in the case of Jim's death. The blackguard, with the help of another, loses no time in attempting to bring this about, and is only frustrated by "Big Jim" himself, who in a tremendous scene saves himself and his workers from a mine rapidly filling with water. A good comedy closes the bill.

At The Arcana

"The Other Half" is a two reel Gold Seal drama featuring G. Raymond Nye, L. M. Wells, Roberta Wilson and others. Because a wealthy man in high social life objects to his son marrying a gambler's daughter, the gambler sets out to prove that the wealthy man is also smirched, as he draws revenue from properties owned in the red light district. This he succeeds in proving, and the wealthy man consents to the marriage to save his good name.

"His Wooden Leg" is a Nestor comedy featuring Roy Gallagher and Billie Rhodes as a young married couple. The rich uncle bequeaths his wooden leg to his nephew, who tries to lose it unsuccessfully. Later he discovers it contains a fortune in money.

"The Unexpected Scoop" is a Rex drama with Jack Connolly and Jack Nelson as rival reporters and Myrtle Gonzalez as the girl.

At The Strand

"A Strange Inheritance" is No. 2 of the "Peg o' the Ring" series. This continues the adventures of Peg, a daughter of the circus. Her father's second wife has conspired with a Hindoo accomplice to kidnap Peg and get her out of the way. Peg still has in his possession the letter left by Peg's mother, to be opened by the girl on her eighteenth birthday. The circus scenes are unique and some good turns are shown incidental to the story. Peg is kidnapped and Lund, Jr., comes to the rescue. The installment closes with both at the mercy of the Hindoo and his gang.

"Royal Love" is a three part Victor drama. "Meeting for Cheating" is an L-Ko comedy and you know the fun. A laugh to every foot of L-Ko comedies.

At The Forrester

"The Tragic Circle" is a two-part American drama featuring Harold Lockwood, May Allison, William Stowell and Ashton Dearholt. A love story out of the ordinary and one that will grasp the interest and hold it to the end. A play for young and old. Be sure to see it.

"The Hold Up" is a Cub comedy with George Ovey furnishing the fun in a good western ranch story. George George, Jefferson

Osborn, Louis FitzRoy, Janet Sully and Belle Bennett complete the cast. "Her Confession" is a Thanhouser drama featuring Florence LaBadie, Carey L. Hastings, Thomas A. Curran and Ernest C. Warde. A stirring and gripping story.

At the Temple
"The Love Trail" is a five part Gold Rooster play adopted from the celebrated novel "The Dop Doctor." Fred Paul, Agnes Glynn and Booth Conway form the excellent cast in this play in which Miss Glynn is introduced to the movie fans. A thrilling story of frontier life with love interest throughout. Mr. Paul distinguishes himself in the role of the doctor.

The setting of the story is in South Africa during the Boer War. With the death of her parents, Lynette was thrown into the hands of an unscrupulous tavern keeper. It was at the age of six that she became a penniless kitchen maid. Despite the humble surroundings she grew up into beautiful womanhood, and was compelled to flee to escape the sordid life of her master.

Baby Show
Tuesday evening, June 27th, will be baby day at the Temple Theatre. The Baby Show held this week proved a big success and Manager Smittle has arranged to have more baby pictures for the next baby show.

Books Mutt and Jeff
Messrs. Farmer and Holman, of the Forrester Theatre, have hooked the famous Mutt and Jeff comedy pictures, the first one being shown tonight. The pictures take the place of the Charlie Chaplin comedies. See Mutt and Jeff every Saturday night in addition to the regular program.

AGAINST CENSORS

Bessie Barriscale, who is co-starred with William Desmond, in "Not My Sister," Triangle feature, does not believe in censorship of motion pictures. She takes this stand upon the ground that the general public is the best judge of what it should see on the screen.

NEW PLANT

With the completion of the new electric studio and the open air stage, the largest in the world, at the Edendale plant of the Triangle-Keystone Film company, a new era has begun in the filming of motion pictures.

KITTY GORDON IS A BUSY CREATURE

Kitty Gordon is busily engaged with half a dozen noted gown builders, preparing for her forthcoming activities at the World Film studios. The famous Kitty (she is famous for in private life she is no less a personage than the Honorable Mrs. H. H. Beresford, wife of the noble British soldier of that name) promises a few more surprising habiliamentary creations. In "The Crucial Test" and "As In A Looking Glass" she displayed no less than eleven magnificent gowns, and she has given her word to outdo herself in the next two productions.

WERE ENTERTAINED

The Press Club of Los Angeles, which includes almost all of the celebrated west coast writers, recently entertained De Wolf Hopper and Douglas Fairbanks at their elaborate club rooms. The occasion was hailed in advance as "Comedy Night" inasmuch as the two Triangle stars are recognized stage comedians.

(Universal Weekly)

Mr. L. G. Welch of the Strand theatre, Portsmouth, O., reports: "Peace reigns supreme in the Welch family now that we are to get the big U program again; we think there is nothing like it."

"THE WALL BETWEEN"

In "The Wall Between," a forthcoming Metro wonderplay, in which Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne are starred, there are many big battle scenes, the principal ones being between a United States regiment and five hundred natives of Nicaragua.

"THE QUITTER"

Lionel Barrymore, who has just completed his work in "Dorian's Divorce" for the Metro program being started in that production, with Grace Valentine, will be starred alone in "The Quitter," a sensational five part feature which has just been put into production.

BUICK HAS SPLENDID RECORD

In twelve seasons of successful use the Buick valve-in-head motor has demonstrated its superiority beyond all shadow of doubt. This motor, first of all, is correct in principle. It is standard in practically all European cars, and it is rapidly being adopted by American manufacturers. No stronger proof could be offered that it is right.

The Buick company is the pioneer user of this type of motor. Since the first Buick car was built Buick engineers have been developing this motor, not in principle, but in refinement of detail.

STUDEBAKER POPULARITY INCREASING

The popularity of the Studebaker automobiles in Scioto county is rapidly increasing, according to many motorists. The flexibility of the motor, the long graceful body lines, the full easy springs and the easy control makes it one of the best cars on the market.

MAXWELLS REACH AN EXTREME SOUTHERN DESTINATION

Maxwell motor cars have achieved the signal distinction of attaining the most southerly point in Mexico of any automobiles engaged in the primitive expedition in that country. Letters from United States army officers have been received by the Buick Motor company, Maxwell distributors in El Paso, Texas, testifying to the fact that the sturdy Maxwells have pushed farther south over the tortuous Mexican trails than any other make of car. These letters contain words of praise for the splendid service given by the Maxwells under most discouraging conditions.

One of the American officers, who drove a Maxwell car in the army's movement to the south, writes as follows from San Antonio, Chihuahua: "The car is standing up well. It has been given tests to which no other car with the expedition has been subjected. We have used the car on patrol duty and the roads—save the word—are unworthy of the name. Every member of the staff who has used this car is a Maxwell booster, for the car has done everything we have called for."

A Doctor's Remedy for Coughs

As a cure for coughs and colds Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey combines these remedies in just the right proportion to do the most good for summer coughs or colds. A trial will prove the value of this splendid cough medicine. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey soothes the irritation, stops your cough, kills the cold germs and does you a world of good. A 25c bottle will more than convince you—it will stop your cough. At drug stores.

"A MILLION A MINUTE"

Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne, who recently completed "A Million A Minute," a forthcoming Metro wonderplay, have gone to Baltimore, where they will spend a vacation of ten days with Mr. Bushman's family at Bushmanor, the popular screen artist's country estate.

"ROMEO AND JULIET"

The production of "Romeo and Juliet" in which Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne will be starred, promises to be one of the most pretentious features ever offered on the Metro program.

HOW MANY MILES IN YOUR TIRES?— THAT'S THE QUESTION THAT SHOULD INTEREST EVERY AUTOMOBILE OWNER

The one dominant feature of 1916 cars is the sensational development in Multi-Cylinder motors. Everybody is talking about 4, 6, 8 or 12 cylinders. All this means improved power—power to turn the wheels.

But no matter how many cylinders your car has, remember the final point of contact between the driving cylinder power and the resistance of the road surface, are the tires.

Miller Geared to the Road Tires

are equal to the dual task imposed upon them by the weight, power and speed of the car, and the rough and uneven roads. Miller tires are brimful of Mile Muscle. That's why all ORDINARY REPAIRS such as BLOWOUTS, STONE BRUISES and CUTS will be REPAIRED FREE OF CHARGE as long as the tires are on the car and in service.

Alex Glockner
GAY AND GALLIA STREETS

Irvin Cobb on Kentucky.
In the American Magazine Irvin S. Cobb, writing on his native state, Kentucky, says:
"It has been alleged, and not without some color of plausibility, that Kentuckians are belligerent by nature. We do not deny it. The crass of our state shows two gentlemen in swallow tail coats, holding each other firmly by the right hand. The intent of the picture is plain. So long as they both hold hands neither can reach for his hardware. The motto which goes with this device is, 'United we stand, divided we fall.' By an oversight, the designers left off the word 'to' from the end of the phrase. It has been deemed advisable to add it here."

When a Great Man Dies.
There can be but austere and serious thoughts to all hearts when a sublime spirit makes its majestic entrance into another life, when one of those beings who have long soared above the crowd on the visible wings of genius, spreading all at once other wings which we did not see, plunges swiftly into the unknown.—From Hugo's Funeral Oration on Balzac.

VITAGRAPH BLUE RIBBON FEATURE

At the Lyric Monday

"The Supreme Temptation" is the latest multiple-reel effort of the Vitagraph company. It is a play of thrilling intensity from the pen of Arthur J. Westerman, produced under the direction of Harry Davenport and featuring Antonio Moreno and Dorothy Kelly in an all-star cast of Vitagraphs, including Evert Owen, Marguerite Blake, Chas. Kent, Mary Maurice and Kate Davenport.

A charming love story is woven into the production, relieving the suspense, in which Evert Owen and Kate Davenport present a happy domestic view. Marguerite Blake is charming as the second wife and Charles Kent and Mary Maurice give their usual flawless portrayals.

"The Supreme Temptation" is a five part feature, released through the V. L. S. E., and should prove a tremendous attraction.

down a treacherous winding mountain grade in "The Raiders," the Triangle-Kay Bee feature, in which H. B. Warner is starred, Dorothy Dalton, who plays the chief supporting role, proved herself a skillful as well as a daring driver. Traveling often at the rate of a mile-a-minute, the actress negotiated the difficult turns without hesitation, and at all times was master of the car. The race plays a big part in the thrilling events that bring the story to a climax.

Maurice Tourneur, the famous Paragon film director, is about to assemble scenery, players and incidental necessities for an all-star World Film production which he will make under the supervisory of William A. Brady.

"Home of Character" No. 124

This is a type of cement house having the feeling of modern German work. The absence of the porch, the bay window on the center of the gable in the front, and the treatment of the stair bay give this house the character and snap which has made it so popular with our friends. The walls being buff colored with the exterior woodwork stained brown and sash painted white, together with the green slate roof and red brick foundation, compose a color scheme which is enlivened by a touch of brilliant color in the flower box over the hood and also in the flower boxes at each side of the entrance stoop.

A little study of the plan will show how thoroughly everything that goes to make an artistic home has been worked out. Attention is called to the veranda opening off the dining room as well as the living room. The second floor has four bedrooms, each with ample closet, linen closet, bathroom, a well-lighted hall and stairway to attic. The basement extends under the entire house and is reached from the grade entrance landing under the main stairs and from the kitchen, or through the hall from the living room. Sufficient space to be finished off as a billiard room or divided into additional bedrooms is provided in the attic.

Cost $5400. Can be built for from $1200 to $6000.

The Tallow Dip Goes Out!

A Boston firm, which operated the largest tallow dip factory in the country, which, of a fact, was about the sole survivor in this once general and flourishing industry, announced, last week, that it would discontinue the making of the candles. Thus another institution of the past makes surrender to progress. A generation ago not only every well regulated, but most every family of every kind, kept a stock of tallow candles on hand, according to their prudence and means. Now most families, especially those in town, have little knowledge of this mode of lighting and less use for it. That is rather strange for the tallow dip still remains with us as the measure of light. For we still speak and will so continue for many years, of a given brilliancy as so many candle power, 16-candle lamp, 40-candle, 60-candle, 80-candle, 1200-candle and 2000-candle are terms of hourly use, in speaking of electric illumination. And could things thus so intimately connected be so far apart. The tallow dip was a necessity, but it was a nuisance. Danger and discomfort were its accompaniments and qualities. Recall the hunting for a match, a place to strike it, the melted tallow running down onto fingers and scorched them, the upsetting of the pesky thing when it was set down without its "stick," which by-the-way wasn't a stick at all, but a hollow tube with a base in which the candle was stuck, that is when the family had enough "sticks," but a wouldn't speak altogether disparagingly of the tallow dip; it had its uses and it was mighty handy at times. It is not at all the same with the electric candle. It is absolutely the most wonderful of all inventions because it is a prime necessity and at the same time the best of all comforts and the finest of luxuries. You often here people say they would like to have a taste of luxury—they can get it almost for nothing in the electric current. There isn't a particle of noise, dirt, disorder, confusion or annoyance about it, scarce so much an effort required to reach its enjoyment. Merely pressing a button brings a veritable flood of light, the cooling breezes to blowing, or the water steaming on the stove—things of more life and daily importance to you than that its moves the ears along the streets and across country, whirls the big wheels in industries, and talks clear around the earth and chatters through invisible space. It is the pleasant thing, the comfortable thing, the important thing, the useful thing, the necessitous thing, the one luxurious thing you can demand in your home and know you are doing the most economical thing. Whether you own your home or rent it, you ought to see it has electric service.

We will be glad to talk to you anytime about how little it costs and what are its manifold advantages.

Girl Tells Mayor Details Of Relations With Step-Father

A. M. Durham, the Earlstown ex-prosecutor, who was bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $1,000 on a charge of incest, was unable to give bond in that amount and was transferred from the city prison to the county jail Friday evening.

Durham's 17-year-old step-daughter, Miss Nora Morgan, of No. 2949 1-2 Eighth street, who after Durham had driven her from home last Sunday night and threatened to kill her, according to the evidence given in police court, confessed that he had forced her to submit to him and held her in fear, called at police headquarters again Friday in company with a neighbor, Mrs. Noah Gray, No. 2326 Ninth street.

The girl inquired if it would be necessary for her to engage a lawyer to prosecute Durham. She was told that the county prosecutor would be her attorney.

While there the girl privately acquainted Mayor Kaps with some additional facts concerning her experience. She said that when Durham began making advances to her a year ago last August she told her mother that he had insulted her, and she left home to get away from him, going to the home of a grandmother at Vanceburg, Ky. When she returned home at the end of a year to see her mother, Durham renewed his advances. He annoyed her at every opportunity, she said.

She said that she told her mother, but that her only answer was "I don't know what to do about it."

Miss Morgan has been staying at the home of Mrs. Noah Gray for the past two days and on Saturday went to the home of Mrs. Jason Gray for a brief visit, these neighbors, along with others having interested themselves in the girl, who expects to resume her work at the Irving Drew shoe factory Monday morning. She is still very bitter towards her mother for not having, as she puts it, "told all she knows" during the hearing in the mayor's court Thursday night.

Mrs. Durham since the hearing has told some of the neighbors that she was in great fear Thursday evening, but she had since made up her mind to tell all and not shield her husband in the least before the grand jury.

Aged Man Is Found Helpless On Street

Traveling men who found an aged man on crutches, giving the name of Benjamin Rauscher, in a helpless condition at the N. & W. passenger depot Friday night, had him removed to the St. Clair hotel, paying lodging for him there.

The stranger seemed to have suffered a paralytic stroke that affected every part of his body. The traveling men notified the police officials of their action, that someone might investigate his case and look after him Saturday. At the hotel Saturday morning it was stated that Rauscher was in a deep sleep and it was deemed best not to disturb him. The stranger told officials Saturday noon that he was homeless and came to Portsmouth from Pomeroy. He wants to go South where he claims to have friends. He will probably be warranted over to the county authorities.

Meyers Is Bound Over

Mayor H.H. Kaps, who had reversed his decision in the case of John Meyers, an East End young man charged with grand larceny, concluded Friday evening that the evidence warranted him in holding him to a higher court.

Accordingly he bound him over to the grand jury, fixing his bond at $200. Meyers was transferred to man charged with grand larceny, concluded Friday evening that the evidence warranted him in holding him to a higher court.

Today And A Generation Hence

The flight of time makes us think of the future. The baby of today reflects what greatness may be acquired when he grows up. And any influence that brings relief to the expectant mother is the first and greatest of obligations. There is a splendid remedy known as "Mother's Friend" that has been a safeguard, a helpful daily influence, to a host of women. Applied externally to the muscles they become pliant, there is an absence of distress, the nerves are soothed by taking away the burden of leaving all to just natural conditions.

There is in "Mother's Friend" the direct and immediate help that all expectant mothers require. Used by their own hands, guided by their own minds, they learn at once the blessed relief from morning sickness resulting from undue stretching. They experience "Mother's Friend." Get a little today of any drugstore. Then write Bradford Regulator Co., 416 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for one of the most entertaining and valuable little books ever presented. # OIL MEN TO SINK TEST WELL NEAR BUENA VISTA

The activities of representatives of large oil development companies of Parkersburg, W. Va., in Scioto county are being watched with considerable interest. Saturday William Byers, a representative of an oil development company, Parkersburg, arrived in Portsmouth and immediately left for Buena Vista, where he will take leases on lands.

The land leased to Parkersburg capitalists by John Harcha, deputy county clerk, are to be developed this summer. Arrangements have been made to put down a test well within the next two weeks.

Prosecutor Renders Opinion In Special Case; Property Exempt

Relative to a question submitted to Prosecuting Attorney Joseph T. Micklethwait by S. D. Eckhart, county auditor, concerning the legality of "the application of the collateral inheritance tax to a devise contained in the will of the late Mary A. Mulligan, of a farm located in this county to the pastor of the Holy Redeemer church, in trust, the proceeds from the sale of which are to be applied to the purchase of a site for a new parochial school," the following opinion was rendered: "The public without distinction or discrimination as to race, condition, creed or otherwise, are fully admitted to such public parochial schools, and this school, and the benefits derived therefrom, are open and free, and available to all persons upon the same conditions, irrespective of race, color, condition or otherwise."

"I am of the opinion that a mere fact that this institution of learning is under the supervision of the church and is primarily designed and intended to inculcate the religious doctrine of that church, does not deprive it of its public character."

Masons Planning Great Time At Annual Picnic Saturday June 24

Three Masonic lodges, Aurora No. 48, Lucasville No. 405 and Western Sun No. 91 will jointly hold their annual picnic at Millbrook Park Saturday afternoon and evening, June 24, under the auspices of the Past Master's Association of Scioto county. Invitations were mailed by the committee Friday night. The committee consists of the association acting as a whole.

Several unique events which are always enjoyed, have been planned for the afternoon. Arrangements have been made for all Masons who desire to witness the base ball game between Portsmouth and Charleston at an admission of twenty-five cents. After the regular ball game, games and children's events will be held. The Bill Zottmann's famous "Bone Head" team and Harry Johnson's fast "Ivory Knobs" will cross bats for an engagement of seven innings to determine the victor of 1916. Then too, the Mason's sons will compete with the "Masonic Dads" for honors. There will be peanut races and pie-eating contests and many other forms of amusements, the nature of which will be announced by the committee later.

The checking room will be maintained this year under the porch of the Millbrook casino, where all clothing, baskets and etc., can be checked. The evening will be featured by a basket dinner. This year lemonade and coffee, cream and sugar will be furnished to all picnickers. The arrangements for the evening have not been completed, but a splendid programme is promised. The River City Band will give a concert at the casino. An invitation has been issued by the committee to every Mason in the city or county regardless of whether they are affiliated with Scioto county lodges. Masons, their families and sweethearts are invited. The badges this year are triangular shaped pieces of white card board upon which is printed the names of the lodges, the date of the picnic and the name of the committee in charge. Those desiring badges can obtain them from their respective secretaries.

A NEWSPAPER

The Times has endeavored during the two big conventions which are now history to live up to its reputation, of being a real newspaper. We feel encouraged by the comments of our friends in the belief that we have succeeded. If a patron of The Times is not informed on the questions of the day we believe that the blame cannot be charged against the paper.

DON'T TAKE YOURSELF TOO SERIOUSLY

Of all admonitions, one of the most pointed is the one "Don't take yourself too seriously," or as some like to quote it with a short word before the word seriously.

If those who are prone to sudden anger, or to equally disastrous "swellings of the head" over their own importance, would bear this in mind, not only would they be better off themselves, but they would prevent much discomfort on the part of others.

The next time you have angry thoughts surging through your "seat of reason" should be, stop and say to yourself, "Who am I, that I should raise such a rumpus? What difference will it make tomorrow, or the week after, whether I have gotten angry, except that I will be ashamed of myself?"

If you will do that, the times that your ruffled temper will be smoothed out without reaching the explosive point will be too numerous to mention. Try the plan.

And then about the "swell head."

Honestly, we have known some people who spent a considerable portion of their time wondering how the business would run if they should leave, while at the same time their bosses were figuring whether friendship should continue them in their jobs, or whether it would not be better to rule out sentiment and get some new blood in the place.

If you think that you are indispensable, just cast about and see what really happens when some of these "indispensables" step out. True there may be some inconvenience temporarily, but no truer words were ever spoken than "There is always someone to take your place." And the business in which you are engaged and the world in which you live, will move ahead whether you are helping to move it or not.

When you are inclined to become "too chesty," to use familiar slang, stop and ask yourself if you are not viewing your puny efforts "too seriously." Try it, and it may save you a good job.

And in conclusion don't take yourself too seriously in regard to what others may say or do. We know people who have imagined that this article or that in some newspaper was aimed at them, when perhaps the writers never had any such intention, and never had even thought of the people who seemed to want to "put on the shoe."

Don't take yourself too seriously and you will be happier.

WHO WAS RIGHT?

She was plainly dressed, and in her arms she carried a number of bundles, in the mysterious fashion that only a woman can manage, leaving both hands free. In one hand she carried the inevitable bag, and in the other—a toy balloon. She was walking down Chillicothe street.

"There goes a foolish woman," commented a passerby. "How much better it would be had she spent her money for something useful instead of for a toy that at best will give but a moment's gratification and then be gone forever. You can tell from her clothes she has no money to throw away."

And the man who was walking with him said:

"I can't see any foolish woman. I can only see a little home at the end of her trip. I can only see a great white light, purer and more brilliant than any that ever came from a diamond in a kingly crown, which sparkles in her eyes; I can't see any frivolous purchaser, I can only see a great pure inspiration that has guided the tottering steps of little children from the time the world was born; I can't see any poor woman throwing her money away buying a toy balloon because its bright colors caught her eye, I can only see the unselfish, self-sacrificing love, that grips the heart of even the previously selfish woman, and turns all her thoughts to the golden idea of service for another; I can only see a little baby in the humble home waiting for the mother with that little toy balloon, and in a measure I can appreciate that great gift which makes the poor woman rich indeed, Mother Love."

Swat the fly. Swat "him and her" early and often, and thereby help prevent the spread of disease, to say nothing about adding to the comfort of yourself and others.

The time has passed when argument is needed to convince anyone worth while convincing that "the fly must go." The house or the business place where the fly is welcomed is fast becoming a place which to say the least is "open to suspicion."

VACATIONS

Vacation time! Maybe you cannot get away. Don't regret it too much. A vacation at home is the finest of all. But one must make it a vacation and he must insist that everything shall give way to it. Stay at home. Go a-fishing. Stray in the woods. Lounge in the parks. Pass the ball. Have a picnic, a real bacon tea, coffee boiling, blackberry pie picnic. In all the seaboard, mountain top, lake trip, Chautauqua resorts, there is nothing grander than a home picnic, assisted by the neighbor women and a chum or two. Go a snake hunting or dangle for frogs if you want something exciting. The most fun we ever had was hunting for snakes, and the fun was in not finding any; but the search, the watchful expectancy, the fancy if you found one, carry one so far beyond the bounds of contemplation that it is a delight to get back. Indeed, the home vacation is so full of possibilities that it is a real joy to escape the Thousand Islands or the surf-bathing mermaids at the seaside. We expect to subject ourselves to this dilemma in a few days and will try to render a sincere opinion to our dear readers. In the meantime have your vacation elsewhere if you cannot have it at home.—Ohio State Journal.

EARS
If nothing else evolved, ears did, because who would have thought of ears at all? Ears look as if they had been done over and over, and started out to be several other things, and hesitated, and finally settled down and decided to be ears. A large part of the ear is superfluous. At one time the ear must have been used for hearing several miles. But now that we live close together and have telephones and are no longer afraid of Indians or wild animals, we do not need nearly as much ear as we have. We could get along very well with a neat, little, concealed hole in the side of the head, invisible to the casual observer, as inconspicuous as a telephone. The flapping, funnel part of the ear might as well be lopped off—like the twentieth century vermiform appendix.

We presage the passing of the external ear. It may take countless generations, but we are going to get our message in early. When that time does come, small boys the world over may rejoice that they were not born in an age when ears had to be washed.

Chirpy Hears Mr. Garden Toad

FOR SEVERAL minutes after Mr. Garden Toad began his croaking, "Be kind! Be kind!" Chirpy and Mrs. Chirpy Sparrow scolded on as before.

"You can't have it," said Mrs. Chirpy, crossly. "I found this worm."

"I will have it," retorted Chirpy. "I'm too hungry to hunt. Give it to me!"

"You can't!"

"I will!"

"It's mine!"

And just then Chirpy heard Mr. Garden Toad.

"Listen," he stopped quarreling long enough to say, "Don't I hear Mr. Garden Toad? He must have something important to say, for he's talking more than usually loud. Listen!"

"Be kind! Be kind! Be kind, kind!" croaked Mr. Garden Toad, plenty loud enough to be heard in the front yard.

Chirpy looked at Mrs. Chirpy out of the corner of his eye.

Mrs. Chirpy, without noticing what Chirpy was doing, dropped the worm she had been fighting so hard to keep, and remarked kindly, "You take this worm, Chirpy. I don't care about worms anyway. I'll go over to the next yard and get me some seed."

"Indeed, I'll not take it," replied Chirpy. "It's your worm—you got it yourself."

"But you're so hungry," insisted Mrs. Chirpy.

"No, I'm not," laughed Chirpy good-naturedly. "I just said that I had plenty for breakfast. I wanted it—that's all!"

"But I don't like to eat when you haven't anything," said Mrs. Chirpy just as another "Be kind!" sounded from the garden.

"Then let's divide," suggested Chirpy, "and afterward we can both go to the next yard and find seed together."

"Then let's divide," suggested Chirpy

All this while Mr. Garden Toad had been croaking, "Be kind! Be kind! Be kind, kind!" as diligently as possible, but without a sign of an answer from anybody.

But when he stopped for breath he noticed that there was no sound of quarreling in the front yard.

"Guess those sparrows have made up their minds without me," he remarked, "but all the same my idea's a good one—that I know. And I mean to keep right on croaking. Maybe some day I'll help somebody."

So he croaked, "Be kind! Be kind! Be kind, kind!" never guessing that he had already helped two somebodies.

NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY

O.O. MEINTYRE.

New York, June 17—Morgan Kingdon, the Metropolitan tenor, was warbling an aria from "Pagliacci" in his suite in the Majestic the other morning. Down in the street a group of red-shirted, overalled Italians were putting down a new roadway.

As the golden notes floated down to them, one stocky little son of Sunny It, with a mustache that would have won fame for a melodrama villain, cupped his ear and listened. Then he laid down his pipe on the fresh earth, cleared his throat and joined in the song.

His voice carried above the din of traffic and brought diners to the windows, while the policemen on the corner stopped traffic. All the while the laborer sang oblivious to his surroundings, and evidently dreaming of his beloved Venice.

When he finished he was applauded, and blessing he returned to his digging as the great tenor looked out the window and waved to him. The foreman came along and glowered savagely.

"Them Ginnies," he said, "know all the opera airs. Sometimes this runt sings and the rest of them stop and tears come to their eyes. Funny guys—these daogees."

What's the use of staying on the water wagon? The New York bacteriologists, who devote themselves to searing the daylight out of the ultimate bacteria consumer, have announced that soda water, as it is now drunk, is a menace.

They declare that every time a sundae gourmand dips a spoon into his favorite waifline exploder he is on the well known brink of the eternal, with one spoon in the grave in the manner of speaking.

The danger lies in the fact that the clerks, as discovered by the bacteriologists, very frequently do not rinse the glass, or dish, in cold water, then in hot water with cleaning powder.

As a result the monument workers are chopping away gaily at their

CARRANZA DRAWS A DEADLINE ON U. S. TROOP MOVEMENT MAKES THREAT OF OPEN WAR IF TROOPS ADVANCE SOUTHWARD

American Forces Again Clash With Bandits On Border

(BULLETIN)
Washington, June 17.—General Funston advised the war department today that he was informed by General Bell at El Paso that General Pershing had been warned by General Trevino, the Carranza commander at Chihuahua, that any movement of the American expedition to the south, west or east would be a signal for an attack by the Mexican forces.

Laredo, Texas, June 17.—Philip C. Hanna, U. S. consul-general at Monterey, and one of the two remaining American consuls in Mexico accompanied by half a dozen other Americans, arrived here today. He was reticent as to the object of his visit.

Chihuahua City, Mexico, June 17.—General Jacinto Trevino, commanding the Carranza army of the north, late yesterday advised General J. J. Pershing, American expeditionary commander, that any movement of the American troops from the present lines to the south, east or west, would be considered a hostile act and a signal to commence warfare. General Trevino acted upon specific instructions from Carranza.

El Paso, Texas, June 17.—Dispatches from Chihuahua City that General Trevino had notified General Pershing that any movement of his command other than in a northerly direction would be construed as a hostile act, aroused no apprehension among army officials here. It was asserted that the expeditionary command is amply prepared to care for itself in any eventuality.

Brownsville, Texas, June 17.—United States troops came upon a band of between 25 and 30 Mexican bandits about ten miles east of San Benito, Texas, late last night and after exchanging a few shots the Mexicans scattered. It is reported three Mexicans were killed. So far as known there was no American casualties.

The troops engaged came from San Benito. Two companies of the Twenty-sixth Infantry were immediately dispatched in automobiles from Hulsingen, Texas, to Olmito, ten miles north of Brownsville, in an effort to cut off the bandits, who at midnight were headed for the Rio Grande.

officials seek detailed information on new developments.

Carranza's threat is reported from Chihuahua yesterday as having been transmitted to General Pershing through General Trevino, to start active warfare if American troops in Mexico are moved in any direction except northward toward the border.

Another bandit raid on Texas territory north of Brownsville was reported last night, in addition to the attack on American troops by Mexicans at San Ignacio, Wednesday. Reports of warnings by the Carranza commander opposite San Ignacio that American troops would be attacked if they crossed the Rio Grande, regardless of their purpose, were also received.

Additional to the note dealing with some of these late developments may be made, it is said. Officials say it is the present intention to dispatch the reply within a few days.

The Washington government will reaffirm its purpose not to intervene in Mexican affairs unless forced by continued and aggravated attacks on American territory, it is reported. Sufficient emphasis will be placed on the growing impatience of this government, however, to make it plain that if warfare finally appears a duty, it will not be shirked.

U. S. FIRM GETS A SHELL ORDER FROM THE FRENCH

Brownsville, Texas, June 12.—Into the game of hide and seek played by the Mexicans, when reports came that another bandit force had appeared near the Brownsville trail, 14 miles north of Brownsville and had robbed a Mexican farmer of his horses. The man escaped unharmed and reported the occurrence to Fort Brown from where the cavalry was sent.

Reports from the various detachments are awaited eagerly here and at Fort Brown today.

Much interest was displayed concerning the question whether if the bandits eluded the soldiers on this side of the Rio Grande and effected an escape into Mexico, the Americans would pursue a hot trail, across the international boundary or leave the corralling of the outlaws to the Carranza soldiers under General Bieaut, who recently announced that he had placed a sufficient force in this territory to deal with all outbreaks and that any crossing by the Americans would meet with armed resistance.

Washington, D. C., June 17.—Although the United States' reply to General Carranza's last note is virtually completed, its dispatch is being detained while administration

Rome, via Paris, June 17.—The nomination of President Wilson by acclamation appears under large headlines in all the Rome newspapers.

The general comment is that Wilson will be obliged, despite his pacifist inclinations, to support the creation of a powerful fleet and a strong army and the larger participation of the United States in world politics.

ALLIES DEMANDS ON GREECE STRENGTHEN

Athens, June 7.—The demands of the entente allies nations on Greece, it was learned here today, are being considerably strengthened and extended as a result of the Anti entente demonstrations which broke out in Athens last Monday.

The demands were ready for presentation to the Greek government when the disorders occurred but the note probably will not be delivered until next week. Meanwhile the entente blockade against Greek ports is continuing in full force.

SUNSHINE AND GLADNESS FOR "SHOEMAKERS DAY"

CLOUDS ROLLED AWAY ALL IS IN READINESS FOR THE BIG EVENT

Those base ball fans who began to grump and grumble, Friday afternoon because banks of big black clouds filled the heavens and sent down a steady rain, fearful lest the weather man gave indications that a dismal day had been decided for "Shoemakers' Day," awoke Saturday morning and were put into a hilarious state indeed when they peeped out into God's all-out doors and saw the sunlight dancing and flirting with all nature. Like that old theory in geometry, "Action is equal to reaction," so the fans were immediately transformed into enthusiastic human beings, all ready to affirm that while the rain may fall on the just and unjust alike, nevertheless the weather man was just about the most popular individual that ever moved and had a being.

For a more glorious day never dawned. The sun swept his gladness rays everywhere, bathing the whole universe in his mellow light. The shoeworkers went to their work, the men whistling and the women singing, for only a confirmed grump could fail to be touched by the glories of Saturday morning. Everybody, from the baby to father, breakfasted with a relish, making no complaints if the coffee was a little cold or the toast a little too brown.

The day could not have been better had it been made to order. The members of the committee who had their misgiving last night, were happy as larks, for it did not take a prophet to see that the day would be all it promised to be. Not a speck of a cloud was visible, for the clouds of Friday had been swept away and joy and gladness was to be found everywhere.

Even if this was not "Shoemakers' Day" it would be a mighty unappreciative editorial writer who could not get enough inspiration from such a morning for a little squib.

With nature all attuned to the joys of the occasion, make no mistake about it, "Shoemakers' Day," which will be inaugurated at 1 o'clock this afternoon, is going to be one whole of a success. The festivities will be carried out as arranged. The crowd will assemble at The Times office at 1 o'clock this afternoon, where martial music from four bands will keep everybody in an uproariously good humor. And don't forget that thousands will be in the parade. Men, women and children are going to march. The procession will form promptly at 1 o'clock, and led by the River City band will move up Chilian street to Gallia, east on Gallia to Waller, north on Waller to Ninth, where the Street Railway Co. will have a dozen cars in waiting, and the journey will then begin for beautiful Millbrook.

With about fifteen minutes practice the first game of the afternoon between the Selby Shoe Co., the Excelsior Shoe Co., and the Irving Drew Co. will be called. It is thought that fifteen minutes will be long enough for most of the players to oil up their muscles. Of course, it is conceded that there are a few of the players who could not condition themselves under four weeks' practice and then the issue would be doubtful. Juke Bassler declares he has been in shape since the war, but his statement is not given full credence among some of his friends. Gene Crichton opines he will need no practice, while Homer Selby contends he is always in shape. Well, some of these conceited athletes will be late for Sunday school tomorrow—put a bet on that prophecy.

At the conclusion of the Shoemakers' game, a battle will be staged by the sun-tanned players who compose the Portsmouth and Mayville teams. With two great games people living within ear shot of Millbrook Park will hear noises that will preclude afternoon naps. For all will be animation, enthusiasm and gobs of joy.

Tickets for the big event have been sold right and left. Every fellow you see has one or more, and many you don't see. A little hush in the sale of pasteboards was experienced Friday afternoon, but with the flood of sunlight on Saturday morning, lustre was made up and some of the ticket sellers spent more time in making change Saturday morning than they did in making shoes. However, foremen and foreladies overlooked the fact that the output was not up to requirements. In fact everybody was full of glee and good humor and it was "please do this" and "please don't do this" in every quarter of the three big factories.

Want the kids be out in full force! Won't they? Well, come and see them file into the gates. Not a penny admission will be charged them. Every boy and girl in the city under 16 years of age will be privileged to see the two games absolutely free. Two thousand and more will be out, and they will stick around until the last man is retired.

Get in the game, join the happy throng, line up in the parade—you'll live longer by so doing, and you will help to show to the world that when Portsmouth takes hold of a proposition that there are no hold-backs, no knockers—all boosters.

Remember, the parade starts at 1 o'clock—get in line—make some noise, and help make "Shoemakers' Day" the biggest affair of its kind in the country.

Team Has Spirit

Manager Jones of the Frankfort Cubs expects to have several victories in the coming few days. "With Williams on second, Kober back at first and Kober in his old position at short and the acquisition of one more good pitcher and my team will be ready for the second half. The spirit is there. All I need is the players," Manager Jones said Friday.

Ten Horses Entered In Latonia Derby To Be Run This Afternoon

Cincinnati, June 17.—Ten horses were entered to start in the 31th running of the Latonia Derby at the Latonia Ky. race course this afternoon. Six and possibly seven or eight, it was thought were reasonably sure to start.

The derby is worth $15,000 and as some of the best eight year olds in the country were among the entries, the race promised to be an open one. The track was affected by the heavy rain of yesterday but it began to dry out last night.

George Smith ruled favorite in the morning betting on account of his victory in the Kentucky derby. Big Snook, Volary and some of the others have been doing splendidly and many looked to see the victor come from one of these.

The distance of the race is a mile and a half. The horses entered are: Cipse George, Dick Williams, Captain Ross, Volary, Big Snook, Dodge, George Smith, King Corin, Franklin, Elison, Weber and Ward.

Daubert Boss Hitter In The National League

Chicago, June 17.—Terrific hitting by the Cubs in the past week put them in the lead in club batting in the National league with 355 and gave them three places among the ten batters doing three hundred or better. Averages published here today show Jake Daubert still heads the list with 345. Max Carey of Pittsburgh has resumed the lead in stolen bases with 18, but in most other departments the Cubs are ahead. Williams in home runs with seven and in total bases with 99; Zimmerman in runs scored with 33 and Flack in sacrifice hits with 19. The league's 399 hitters are:

Daubert, Brooklyn 315; Schulte, Chicago 338; Doyle, New York 338; Zimmerman, Chicago 330; Robertson, New York 329; Wheat, Brooklyn 316; Hinchman, Pittsburgh 313; Williams, Chicago 308; Wagner, Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh 303; Chase, Cincinnati 301.

A. H. Bridwell Home

A. H. Bridwell of the Atlanta team, who recently was spiked while playing for that club, is in the city. He had a touch of malaria at Atlanta and this combined with his injury resulted in his being out of the game.

Seven Regulars Hitting .300

Only seven regulars are hitting but for them .300 in the American league, and Burns of Detroit has edged into second place. Speaker still leads with .388, is ahead in total bases with 103, and in runs scored with 33. The unusual sight of a catcher's leading the league in stolen bases is shown, with Schalk, of Chicago, setting the pace with 14, one ahead of such speedy men as Cobb and Sister. Gurney, Cleveland, leads in home runs with four and Gaudin, Cleveland, leads in sacrifice hits with 16. Detroit is ahead in team hitting with .256. The 300 hitters, including only those who have played in at least half the games of their clubs, are:

Speaker, Cleveland .388; Burns, Detroit .387; Jackson, Chicago .377; Cobb, Detroit .374; Hehman, Detroit .310; Koussanek, New York .308; Smith, Cleveland .303.

Daniels And Stovall Tied

George Stovall, Toledo, has hammered himself into a tie for the batting leadership of the American Association with Daniels of Louisville. Each is hitting .329, the former for 12 games and the latter for 31. Thorpe, Milwaukee, leads in stolen bases with 21; Gilbert, Kansas City, in home runs with six; Bradley, Columbus in sacrifice hits with 17; Leary, Indianapolis, in total bases with 85; and Acosta, Minneapolis, in runs scored with 33. Indianapolis is ahead in team hitting with .262. The 300 hitters are:

Daniels, Louisville .329; Stovall, Toledo .329; Chappelle, Columbus .328; Reagan, Kansas City .325; Brunkle, Indianapolis .318; Dolan, Indianapolis .312; Leary, Kansas City .307; McFarland, Louisville .302; Horvath, Kansas City .300; Cruise, St. Paul .300.

WELL, BOYS GET DOWN TO WORK

Portsmouth has 22 more games to play during the first half of the Ohio State league season. President Gableman figured it out Friday that all the Chumps will have to do is to win 12 out of these 22 games and the pennant will fly over Millbrook no matter what the other five teams will do in the way of victories and defeats.

Frankfort Here Sunday

Frankfort will be the attraction in Millbrook park Sunday afternoon, and the "Old Taylors" will face John Persenson, premier pitcher of the Ohio State league. The Old Taylors have taken a big brace (and a bit or two) since last seen here and are going to put four warm battles in Millbrook beginning tomorrow.

Remember fans all Sunday games begin sharply at 2:30.

Will Use Squeeze Play

Manager Herzog is going to try the squeeze play. So many men have been hit on bases in recent games that Herzog says he is going to instruct his "the floor."

Carter's Great Record

Nick Carter may soon be recalled from Indianapolis by the Cleveland Indians. Nick, said, has won 19 games and lost 1 this season, which is some record, Mr. Fan.

Pitcher Clarence Sims will join the local team probably Monday. He has been with the Hannibal team in the Three I league.

President Gableman received a wire from Branch Rickey last night stating that Sims, who is in splendid shape, has been ordered to report here at once. He will be needed.

NO HIT GAME

Boston, June 17.—Hughes pitched a no hit, no run game against Pittsburgh Friday, the Boston Nationals winning 2 to 0. The Boston twirler had great control, passing only two men and striking out seven. Wagner fanned twice, the last time ending the game. Maranville scored the first run when he walked and took second on a single. Willoughby pitched to Kautleher and the latter threw into center field trying to double Maranville. The latter scoring. Maranville was passed in the eighth after two were out. Look third on Snodgrass' third hit, and scored on a double steal. The score:

A NEWSPAPER

The Times has endeavored during the two big conventions which are now history to live up to its reputation, of being a real "newspaper." We feel encouraged by the comments of our friends in the belief that we have succeeded. If a patron of The Times is not informed on the questions of the day we believe that the blame cannot be charged against the paper.

DON'T TAKE YOURSELF TOO SERIOUSLY

Of all admonitions, one of the most pointed is the one "Don't take yourself too seriously," or as some like to quote it with a short word before the word seriously.

If those who are prone to sudden anger, or to equally disastrous "swellings of the head" over their own importance, would hear this in mind, not only would they be better off themselves, but they would prevent much discomfort on the part of others.

The next time you have angry thoughts surging through where your "seat of reason" should be, stop and say to yourself, "Who am I, that I should raise such a rumpus? What difference will it make tomorrow, or the week after, whether I have gotten angry, except that I will be ashamed of myself?"

If you will do that, the times that your ruffled temper will be smoothed out without reaching the explosive point will be too numerous to mention. Try the plan.

And then about the "swell head."

Honestly, we have known some people who spent a considerable portion of their time wondering how the business would run if they should leave, while at the same time their bosses were figuring whether friendship should continue them in their jobs, or whether it would not be better to rule out sentiment and get some new blood in the place.

If you think that you are indispensable, just cast about and see what really happens when some of these "indispensables" step out. True there may be some inconvenience temporarily, but no truer words were ever spoken than "There is always someone to take your place." And the business in which you are engaged and the world in which you live, will move ahead whether you are helping to move it or not.

When you are inclined to become "too chesty," to use familiar slang, stop and ask yourself if you are not viewing your puny efforts "too seriously." Try it, and it may save you a good job.

And in conclusion don't take yourself too seriously in regard to what others may say or do. We know people who have imagined that this article or that in some newspaper was aimed at them, when perhaps the writers never had any such intention, and never had even thought of the people who seemed to want to "put on the show."

Don't take yourself too seriously and you will be happier.

WHO WAS RIGHT?

She was plainly dressed, and in her arms she carried a number of bundles, in the mysterious fashion that only a woman can manage, leaving both hands free. In one hand she carried the inevitable bag, and in the other—a toy balloon. She was walking down Chillicothe street.

"There goes a foolish woman," commented a passerby. "How much better it would be had she spent her money for something useful instead of for a toy that at best will give but a moment's gratification and then be gone forever. You can tell, from her clothes she has no money to throw away."

And the man who was walking with him said:

"I can't see any foolish woman. I can only see a little home at the end of her trip. I can only see a great white light, purer and more brilliant than any that ever came from a diamond in a kingly crown, which sparkles in her eyes; I can't see any frivolous purchaser, I can only see a great pure inspiration that has guided the tottering steps of little children from the time the world was born; I can't see any poor woman throwing her money away buying a toy balloon because its bright colors caught her eye, I can only see the unselfish, self-sacrificing love, that grips the heart of even the previously selfish woman, and turns all her thoughts to the golden idea of service for another; I can only see a little baby in the humble home waiting for the mother with that little toy balloon, and in a measure I can appreciate that great gift which makes the poor woman rich indeed, Mother Love."

SWAT THE FLY

Swat the fly. Swat "him and her" early and often, and thereby help prevent the spread of disease, to say nothing about adding to the comfort of yourself and others.

The time has passed when argument is needed to convince anyone worth while convincing that "the fly must go." The house or the business place where the fly is welcomed is fast becoming a place which to say the least is "open to suspicion."

Swat the fly.

VACATIONS

Vacation time! Maybe you cannot get away. Don't regret it too much. A vacation at home is the finest of all. But one must make it a vacation and he must insist that everything shall give way to it. Stay at home. Go a-fishing. Stray in the woods. Lounge in the parks. Pass the ball. Have a picnic, a real bacon toasting, coffee boiling, blackberry pie picnic. In all the seaboard, mountain top, lake trip, Chautauqua resorts, there is nothing grander than a home picnic, assisted by the neighbor women and a chum or two. Go a snake hunting or dangle for frogs if you want something exciting. The most fun we ever had was hunting for snakes, and the fun was in not finding any; but the search, the watchful expectancy, the fancy if you found one, carry one so far beyond the bounds of contemplation that it is a delight to get back. Indeed, the home vacation is so full of possibilities that it is a real joy to escape the Thousand Islands or the surf-bathing mermaids at the seaside. We expect to subject ourselves to this dilemma in a few days and will try to render a sincere opinion to our dear readers. In the meantime have your vacation elsewhere if you cannot have it at home. —Ohio State Journal.

Everyday Wisdom

By DON HEROLD

DR. KNIPP EARS REMOVED WHILE YOU WAIT

DID IT HURT? NO, BUT I FEEL SORT OF NAKED

EARS

It nothing else evolved, ears did, because who would have thought of ears at all? Ears look as if they had been done over and over, and started out to be several other things, and hesitated, and finally settled down and decided to be ears. A large part of the ear is superfluous. At one time the ear must have been used for hearing several miles, and have telephones and are no longer afraid of Indians or wild animals, we do not need nearly as much ear as we have. We could get along very well with a neat, little, concealed hole in the side of the head, invisible to the casual observer, as inconspicuous as a dialophone. The flapping, funnel part of the ear might as well be lopped off—like the twentieth century vermiform appendix.

We presage the passing of the external ear. It may take countless generations, but we are going to get our presage in early. When that time does come, small boys the world over may rejoice that they were not born in an age when ears had to be washed.

(Proposed by George Matthew Adams)

Now that the Democratic and Republican conventions have selected their vice presidential nominees, all that Indiana has to do is to sit back and see which one of her favorite sons will be elected.

Chirpy Hears Mr. Garden Toad

FOR SEVERAL minutes after Mr. Garden Toad began his croaking, "Be kind! Be kind!" Chirpy and Mrs. Chirpy Sparrow scolded on as before.

"You can't have it," said Mrs. Chirpy crossly. "I found this worm."

"I will have it," retorted Chirpy. "I'm too hungry to hunt. Give it to me!"

"You can't!"

"It's mine!"

And just then Chirpy heard Mr. Garden Toad.

"Listen," he stopped quarreling long enough to say. "Don't I hear Mr. Garden Toad? He must have something important to say, for he's talking more than usually loud. Listen!"

"Be kind! Be kind! Be kind, kind!" croaked Mr. Garden Toad, plenty loud enough to be heard in the front yard.

Chirpy looked at Mrs. Chirpy out of the corner of his eye.

Mrs. Chirpy, without noticing what Chirpy was doing, dropped the worm she had been fighting so hard to keep, and remarked kindly, "You take this worm, Chirpy. I don't care about worms anyway. I'll go over to the next yard and get me some seed."

"Indeed, I'll not take it," replied Chirpy. "It's your worm—you got it yourself."

"But you're so hungry," insisted Mrs. Chirpy.

"No, I'm not," laughed Chirpy good-naturedly. "I just said that I had plenty for breakfast. I wanted that worm because you wanted it—that's all."

"But I don't like to eat when you haven't anything," said Mrs. Chirpy just as another "Be kind! Be kind!" sounded from the garden.

"Then let's divide," suggested Chirpy, "and afterward we can both go to the next yard and find seed together."

"Yes, let's," said Mrs. Chirpy. So the now peaceful and kindly sparrows divided the worm and new off to the next yard, where fresh grass seed made food hunting an easy matter.

"Then let's divide," suggested Chirpy

All this while Mr. Garden Toad had been croaking, "Be kind! Be kind! Be kind, kind," as diligently as possible, but without a sign of an answer from anybody.

But when he stopped for breath he noticed that there was no sound of quarreling in the front yard.

"Guess those sparrows have made up their tuss without me," he remarked; "but all the same my idea's a good one—that I know. And I mean to keep right on croaking. Maybe some day I'll help somebody."

So he croaked, "Be kind! Be kind! Be kind, kind!" never guessing that he had already helped two somebodies.

NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY

O-O-MEINTYRE.

New York, June 17—Morgan Kingston, the Metropolitan tenor, was warbling an aria from "Pagliacci" in his suite in the Majestic the other morning. Down in the street a group of red-shirted, overalled Italians were putting down a new roadway.

As the golden notes floated down to them, one stocky little son of Sunny It, with a mustache that would have won fame for a melodrama villain, cupped his ear and listened. Then he laid down his pipe on the fresh earth, cleared his throat and joined in the song.

His voice carried above the din of traffic and brought diners in the windows, while the policeman on the corner stopped traffic. All the while the laborer sang oblivious to his surroundings, and evidently dreaming of his beloved Venice.

When he finished he was applauded, and blushing he returned to his digging as the great tenor looked out the window and waved to him: The foreman came along and glowered severely.

"Them Guinies," he said, "know all the opera airs. Sometimes this runt sings and the rest of them stop and tears come to their eyes. Funny guys—these dogoes."

What's the use of staying on the water wagon? The New York bacteriologists, who devote themselves to scaring the daylight out of the ultimate bacteria consumer, have announced that soda water, as it is now drunk, is a menace.

They declare that every time a sundae gourmand dips a spoon into his favorite waistline exploder he is on the well known brink of the eternal, with one spoon in the grave in the manner of speaking.

The danger lies in the fact that the clerks, as discovered by the bacteria hounds, very frequently do not rinse the glass, or dish, in cold water, then in hot water with cleaning powder.

As a result the nomenclature workers are chopping away gaily at their task night and day, and Coffin and Hearse, preferred, has become a soda water baby. In fact, the safest way for the soda water tippler is to boil himself in oil, fry the utensils and inject the delicacy into his arm.

When the shooting gallery was opened on Broadway, near Longacre Square, everybody laughed at the prior boob proprietor. What did he think New York was anyway? Keek! The proprietor is having his little private chortle de luxe now.

His business has so flourished that unless you are his friend you have to stand in line. It is not preparedness stuff—it's just rubes. The same kind of a gallery wouldn't make gas light expenses but in the Corn Belt—and on Broadway, dear Broadway, is making a man a millionaire. Ho, hum!

In the crowd at the Stadium to witness the Shakespeare masque the other evening a distinguished looking stranger faintled.

"Who is he?" was the question on every side.

A wog who had been reading the text of the masque with the aid of a pocket electric light overheard the question.

"Probably William Shakespeare," was his answer.

Nellie Revell, queen of the Broadway press agents, has written a play, and not only that, it will be produced with scenery and everything. For some time Miss Revell has been planning a knockout drama. Between writing pieces for city editors about other plays, she found material and believes the new endeavor will be a real dramatic wallop—the kind that makes 'em hold to the chairs and swallow their chewing gum. ## Ye Baseball Scribe

He speaks in language that's all his own,
Of "bags" and a "mound" and a "pan,"
An error of judgment is "pulling a bone."
You "pifer," you "stroll" or you "fan."

A good safe hit is always a "clout."
Fine plans are all "engineered."
You "die at first" if they put you out.

A "liner" is "knocked down" or "spearoed."

A "wicked grounder," you'll find is "stashed."

A pitcher uncorks a "wild beave."

You "lift" or you "pop up," a fly which is "nabbed."

And then you "romp home," I believe.

He stretches a point when he calls nine men

An "anfit," a "clan" or a "tribe."

But the deadliest sin of them all is when

He refers to himself as a "scribe."
